first, do no harm. voluntary relationships with others.

As a Libertarian we follow the Non Aggression Principal. We do not hurt people and we do not take their things. Every decision we make starts with this principal.

I believe the solution to most problems is to shrink the size of government. I believe Individuals are the most important minority. Freedom for the individual is the first and last freedom. I believe we can do for ourselves much better than

Since I am active in the party, I know there are many opinions regarding libertarians. I am not an anarchist but I™m friends with several anarchist and I respect their views. The party should be defined by a group of people coming together and limiting the government™s role in ALL areas of our lives!!

The sole purpose of government is to protect individual rights, which involves both civil liberties and economic freedom, what we have seen lately even in the US is a government with a sole purpose of taking away individual rights! This is a huge problem and the Libertarians are the only party whose primary mission is protection of the Constitution. In addition government functions and powers must be limited to what is permitted within the constitution. The other parties might say they like to follow the constitution, but then will blatantly ignore it with every excuse they can find! One other important point is when a government gets involved in trying to help a situation, such as drugs, poverty, the environment, War on Terror, war on guns, CV outbreak ect. they almost always

Do no harm. Do not initiate violence against another. Individual liberty - a person may exercise his/her human rights in any manner they choose as long as they don't interfere with someone else from doing the same. Economic liberty - a person may trade whatever they want with whomever they want as long as they do not harm or defraud anyone else in the process and honor their obligation of contracts. Property rights - the owner of property has ultimate decision-making authority over his/her justly-acquired property. He/she may use their property however they see fit as long as they don't harm anyone or prevent someone else from exercising their property rights. The only legitimate role of government is to secure these rights and other inalienable

Protection of property rights.
