The LPC Convention: New Directions, New Candidates, New Officers

LOS ANGELES: With the whole state awash and threatening to slide into the Pacific, the LPC Convention (Feb. 14-17) opened as scheduled at the Viscount Hotel. Although the heavy rains kept many at home, there were those brave souls who ventured onto the freeways (and into airplanes, no less!) in order to attend a full weekend of workshops, talks, platform debate, elections, endorsements, and to enjoy a chance to meet old friends and new.

Everything seemed to go smoothly, and our thanks should go to those who worked long hours to put it all together and make it happen: Nancy and Geoff Neale, Melinda Pillsbury-Foster (Program), Barbara Briggs (Exhibits), Janet Brown, Janice and Chris Vargo, and everyone who helped them.

They're Off and Running!

This year's going to be a busy time for libertarians going after public office. Word isn't in yet as to what candidates made the filing dates for their papers—we'll know by next issue.

Meanwhile, the following candidates for state-wide office were endorsed by the Convention: Call them if you want to work on their campaigns or send contributions.

State-Wide Candidates

Office	Candidate	Phone
U.S. Senate	Breck McKinley	818/907-7116
Governor	Joe Fuhrig	916/873-4302
Lieutenant Governor	Norma Jean Almodovar	213/382-6445
Secretary of State	Richard Winger	415/922-9779
Attorney General	Carol Newman	818/884-8528
Controller	Carolyn Treynor	213/546-2846
Treasurer	Ray Cullen	714/645-4033

As a finale at the Grand Banquet, Dick Boddie raised over $2,000 for a special fund that's being developed to help our state-wide candidates in their races. Things seem to be off to a good start.

New Officers Elected

Congratulations to the new officers: Mark Hinkle, Chair; Laurel Fest, Southern Vice-Chair; Dennis Schlumpf, North-ern Vice-Chair; Bob Lehman, Secretary; Jerry Douglas, Treasurer.

And many thanks to those out-going officers: Chair Jack Dean and Southern Vice-Chair Sam Treynor, for a job well done.

Platform & By-Laws Changes

Platform discussion was relatively brief, with only a few new planks added to the platform. One puts the Libertarian Party on record as being in opposition to the principle of police power. Police power doesn't mean simply the prosecution of violent crimes. It's the special power that is claimed by the state as a "right" to prosecute victimless crimes, go after midwives, incarcerate innocent people in mental institutions, close down unlicensed day-care centers—that sort of thing. It's what's done to "protect" people and society in the name of the so-called common good.

Another plank was adopted declaring our opposition to any proposed legislation that would make English the official language of California. In this spirit a resolution was passed condemning civic bodies that adopt ordinances requiring English-only or bi-lingual signs on businesses.

A third new plank endorses our support of the right of individuals or groups to conduct a lottery.

It was also written into the By-laws that it is the primary duty of the State Ex-Com to promote Libertarian Party candidates.

Karl Bray Award

One of the highlights of the Convention is the presentation of the Karl Bray Award, the LPC's highest award for self-initiated, meritorious activism on behalf of the Libertarian Party. This year, the coveted award went to long-time activist Bob Lehman. In presenting it, Bruce Lagasse (originator of the Award) described Bob as "the glue that has held the Party together over the past year," and cited in particular his outstanding efforts in the Membership Drive and his work as state-coordinator.

Bob's efforts go far back. He has served in many offices and capacities: chair of Region 14, LPC Secretary, editor of LiberCal, and Calif. Libertarian News, indefatigable worker in the registration drive, etc., etc. Whenever a job needed to be done, Bob has always been there to give wholehearted support and to be sure it is carried out.

The award, named in honor of the late tax protester Karl Bray, consists of an engraved plaque and a $20 gold piece. Bob says the plaque will always have an honored place in his home; and the gold-piece? Well, we bet he'll do what Jack Dean (winner of the first Award) will do. Jack told those at the Banquet he still has his mounted on a chain so he can keep it around his neck. In any case, Bob is not about to spend it.

Changes at CLNews: Sarah E. Foster, New Editor

Bob Lehman has decided to give up the editorship of California Libertarian News in order to devote full time to his duties as Secretary, and asked me to take over its editorship. Frankly, I'm honored and flattered—just hope I can do as good a job as he's done. It'll be a tough act to follow.

I hope to expand CLN into an eight page publication, especially with so much happening between now and November. However, in order to do this two things are necessary: advertising to cover the costs, plus lots of news.

Please send me information not only about your regional meeting, (when, where, what about), but news of what the candidates and activists in your area are doing: on what battlefield do they fight, what banners do they carry? Also wanted: letters by libertarians published in local papers; reports and alerts on whatever legislation is being proposed and considered in your city, county, Sacramento, Washington (always give bill number, sponsors, who to contact and other relevant material); anecdotes; articles; and so on.

And do watch that deadline (it's under the Events column) for getting information to CLN on time. Use either the LPC address or send directly to me at: 777 Terrace 49, Los Angeles, 90042.

LPC Membership Drive: Button, Button, Who Wore the Button?

It was close right down to the wire in the race to win the banner in the great LPC Membership Drive. In January, Santa Clara and Sacramento Counties were leading, but during the last weeks before the Convention Southern California counties renewed their efforts so two winners emerged victorious: Sacramento (best percentage, 91%) and San Diego (most new members, 41).

Northern Vice-Chair Dennis Schlumpf and Southern Vice-Chair Sam Treynor had challenged each other to a button-duel. If LPC membership increased by a greater percentage in the north than in the south, Sam would wear a button at the Convention announcing that "Northern California Is Best", and vice versa. It was close, but Southern California pulled ahead with a 30% increase over Northern California's 38%.

Dennis lived up to the agreement and wore a button saying, "Southern Calif. is best." (Hey, we know that already! This is just more evidence).

Besides the banners, two plaques were presented by Bob Lehman at the Sam Adams Luncheon to San Diego and Sacramento Counties. They are to be kept by those counties for a year, but next year could go to other winners if these counties rest on their laurels.
