The meeting was called to order at 2010.

The Libertarian Nidus project was discussed.

Minutes were approved without correction.

Without objection Sean Zehner was appointed temporary chairman of the new Onondaga County LP chapter.

The possibility of attorney Lewis Oliver, who onetime represented the LPNY, representing William Van Allen in the future, was discussed.

An overbudget of $125.83 for the latest fundraising letter was reported. An appropriation to make up the deficit was approved without objection.

John Clifton, Tom Stevens, and Mark Axinn were appointed to the coordinating committee for the 2008 LPNY convention.

The Treasurer reported a bank balance of $12,852; when outstanding cheques clear, the balance will be $11,900.

Next year's petition drive was discussed.

The meeting was adjourned at 2100.

Joseph Dobrian
Secretary, LPNY
