OF THE LIBERTARIAN PARTY OF NEW YORK EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE,
DECEMBER 7, 2008

Present:

Mr. Sundwall (chair)
Mr. Axinn
Ms. Capozzi
Mr. Carling
Mr. Cooper
Mr. Dobrian
Mr. Edes
Mr. Garvey
Mr. Kessler
Mr. MacAskill
Mr. Popkin
Mr. Reed
Dr. Stevens

The meeting was called to order at 2002.

Mr. Popkin announced that the LPNY has about $7,200 in the bank and $200 in hand, and no bills outstanding.

Mr. Axinn moves to authorize Mr. Sundwall to create and publish another issue of FreeNY with convention and election information. Passed unanimously.

The next membership renewal letter was briefly discussed.

A possibility of a lawsuit to challenge the Constitutional qualifications of Barack Obama for the Presidency was discussed, but the body declined to act on the issue.

A possible lawsuit to allow New York residents to register to vote as Libertarians was discussed.

By Mr. Cooper: "The LPNY endorses the Stop The Pork Lawsuit filed by Jim Ostrowski to enforce the prohibition in the State Constitution against grants or loans of state money to corporations." Passed unanimously.

The meeting was adjourned at 2046.

Joseph Dobrian, Secretary
Libertarian Party of New York
