Cah,

This is your last chance to vote for your favorite design in our membership card contest! Voting will close at 6 AM Eastern tomorrow, October 20th.

For this year's membership card contest we took our community involvement to the next level by asking members with graphic design skills to submit entries for consideration. Just last week we shared the finalists, and as in years past, important members like you were invited to cast a vote to choose the design you like most. The rules are simple - whichever design receives the highest donation total wins and will become our membership card for the next 12 months.

We've had an exciting response from our members, and heading into the final hours, here is where we stand:

As Libertarians we love choices on everything, so historically our membership card contest is one of our most engaging votes of the year. Which leads me to my plea to you:

Be a part of something bigger today. Be a part of the community you love. Voting is easy to do and your vote can be cast today for as little as $5.

Don't sit on the sidelines and let someone else decide the outcome without your input. Vote now by clicking the button below to get started.
