I. Statement of Principles.

We, the members of the Libertarian Party, seek the maximum protection for the rights of all people against any violation, be it by other people, other nations, or our own government.

Every human being is born master of himself or herself, sole owner of his or her body and mind, free to live and act as he or she sees fit. It is our principle that, so long as a person does not violate the rights of others, he or she should be left free and unrestrained. Government tends to operate on the opposite principle, that the State is master and the individual the servant, to act only as directed by those in power.

We deny the right of any government to coerce peaceful citizens. Governments exist for the sole purpose of defending the freedoms of their citizens. These freedoms include the right to life; the right to liberty of thought, speech and action; and the right to property. When government violates these freedoms--by initiating force against them, by prohibiting the act and means of self-defense, by censoring thought, word and deed, or by taking property without the consent of the owner--the government must be brought to heel.

Government is, essentially, raw concentrated force, and thus prone to abuse. It is established and tolerated only as the agent and servant of the people- not their master. The force of government must be used only in response to an attack, fraud, or other initiation of force against an individual, group or government by another individual, group or government.

Governments have no business interfering in voluntary and contractual relations among individuals. Only to prevent or to rectify acts of fraud should government step in – never for purposes of redistributing wealth or providing special privilege to a few. Under no circumstances should government be allowed to prefer one set of people or handicap another, for whatever reason. All people should be equal under the law, free to deal with one another in a free market, the only system compatible with the principle of individual rights.

The power of government must be kept to the minimum necessary to protect the rights of its citizens, and no more. Granting more power than that minimum allows the corrupt, the ambitious, and the tyrannical to run roughshod over the rights of the citizen. It is our mission to contest this trend, to stop its expansion and to reverse it, working towards the ideal society envisioned by the Founders and enshrined in the Constitution of the United States.

 - Show of hands;
 - Standing division of the house;
 - Written secret ballot; or
 - Roll call vote.
- Unless otherwise specified in these Rules, the method used shall be left to the discretion of the presiding officer, provided, however, that:
 - A division vote must be taken on the request of any qualified participant. Said participant need not have the floor to call for a division vote.
 - A roll call vote must be taken when requested by one-fifth of the participants.
 - All votes taken shall be counted by the presiding officer and secretary.
 - Elections must be held by secret ballot when there is a contested race for any Party office or offices (including delegate and alternate) or for the Party nomination for any public office (including Presidential Elector candidates).

- The vote of a majority of those committee members present shall be necessary to recommend to the floor the passage of any proposal.
- A committee member must be present in order to vote.
- A majority of the voting membership of each committee excluding vacancies shall constitute a quorum for that committee.

IV.5.h.2. Right of Delegates to Appear before Committees.

- Any delegate to a Convention shall have the right to appear before any committee of that Convention and make recommendations for the committee's consideration.
- A committee may make reasonable rules governing the time and manner of such presentations, which may include a requirement for submission of the proposal in writing to the Chair of the committee.
 - Such submission in writing may not be required to be more than three days prior to the first official convening of the committee.
 - No requirement may be adopted after it is too late to meet the requirement.

IV.5.h.3. Convening of committees.

All committees, except the Platform Committee, shall first convene officially no later than the first day immediately preceding the Convention to which they shall report, but such committees may meet informally at any time at their discretion.

IV.5.h.4. Committee Reports.

- The chair of each committee, and the chair's designees, shall report the committee's recommendations to the floor of the Convention. Recommendations on the report may be made individually or as a whole. The convention chair or committee chair shall preside over any discussion and any votes on recommendations.
- Any committee may also issue a minority report or reports which shall have priority of consideration as proposed amendments to the majority recommendations of the committee.

- After minority reports have been dealt with, any delegate may move to amend the recommendation, providing that the substance of such proposal shall have been considered by the committee or shall have been presented to the committee for its consideration.
- Each proposed amendment to a recommendation shall be debated and voted upon separately.
- When all proposed amendments to the report have been considered, the delegates shall then vote on the committee's report as amended as a whole.

IV.5.h.5. Procedures for Platform Committee Reports.

- The Platform Committee must vote on each specific proposed plank or amendment separately.
- In the case of the Platform Committee, the committee Chair shall report the committee's recommendations to the floor on a plank by plank basis, and each shall be debated and voted upon separately in the following order:
 - Those recommendations receiving a unanimous favorable vote in committee.
 - Those recommendations receiving a unanimous favorable vote, less abstentions, in committee.
 - Those recommendations receiving a favorable vote in committee, regarding which there is not a minority report.
 - Those recommendations receiving a favorable vote in committee, regarding which there is a minority report.
- Each Platform Committee recommendation shall be considered in the following manner:

- The Platform Committee Chair, or some other person, shall have up to two minutes to give the committee's thinking in making the recommendation;
- The Chair of the Convention shall then open the floor to discussion of the recommendations for up to fifteen minutes;
- During this time amendments may be proposed from the floor, one at a time, and the proposed amendments shall be voted on before voting on the recommendation, as amended.
- In the case of a Platform Committee recommendation for which there is a minority report, after the majority position has been presented the minority report shall have priority of consideration as a proposed amendment to the majority report and a spokesperson for the minority shall have up to two minutes to present his or her position before the fifteen minute discussion period begins.

IV.5.i. Statement of Principles and Platform Amendments.

- The Statement of Principles adopted by the Party at the first State Convention in July, 1972, as amended in accordance with the Rules, shall remain the permanent Statement of Principles of the Party. Aside from the Statement of Principles, the party shall have no permanent Platform; all planks in the Platform adopted at a previous convention shall expire or sunset upon the end of the third convention from adoption (6 years) unless the plank is deleted, renewed, or altered by a subsequent convention body. The Platform Committee shall have the authority to recommend changes to or deletions of any plank before its scheduled sunset date.

- Proposed amendments to the Statement of Principles and Platform must be voted upon separately on a plank by plank basis.
- Each proposed plank or amendment must receive the votes of two-thirds of the voting delegates for inclusion in the Platform.
- An existing plank may be deleted before its scheduled sunset date by a majority of the delegates.
- Proposed resolutions must receive the votes of two-thirds of the voting delegates for adoption by the Convention.

IV.5.j. Nominations for Public and Party Office.

IV.5.j.1. Filing Procedures.

- No person may be the nominee of the Party for any public office who has not filed an application with the Party to be nominated for that office, in accordance with these Rules.
- If a candidate who has made an application to be nominated withdraws, dies, or is declared ineligible, the filing deadline for applications for nomination for that office is reopened and extended until 11:59 PM of the day before the date of the Convention at which the nominee for that office is chosen.

IV.5.j.2. Nominating Procedures.

- All nominations for Party office or for the Party nomination for public office shall be made from the floor and no nominations by committee shall be permitted.

- All nominations for Party office or for the Party nomination for public office shall be made separately and not as a slate.
- The motion to close nominations shall require a two-thirds vote, and such motion shall not be in order until a reasonable time has passed.

IV.5.j.3. Exclusions from Eligibility for Nomination to Public and Party Office.

- No Convention or Executive Committee of the Party may nominate or endorse any candidate for public office who shall appear on a partisan election ballot either as an independent or as the nominee of another party.
- No person may be the nominee of the Party for any public or Party office who:
 - is ineligible to serve in that office; or
 - has not expressed a willingness to accept the nomination of the Party.

IV.5.j.4. Balloting for Candidates for Public Office.

IV.5.j.4.a. Time of Nominations.

Nominations of candidates for public office at the State level may be made only at the State Convention held in the year of the election for which the nominations are made.

IV.5.j.4.b. Balloting Procedures.

- Majority vote required. The Party's nominees for public office shall be chosen by vote of a majority of the delegates present and voting at the time of balloting at the appropriate Convention.

- Normal balloting procedure. If after two ballots no candidate has attained a majority vote, the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes on the second ballot shall be dropped from all succeeding ballots, and this process shall be repeated for as many ballots as necessary for some candidates to be nominated, or until the Convention votes to not nominate any candidate. After each ballot from which no candidate receives a majority vote the presiding officer shall announce the total vote received by each candidate, including those candidates to be stricken from subsequent ballots.
- Approval voting procedure. If there are more than two candidates for a public office, then the convention may, by majority vote, choose to use approval voting to make a nomination for that office. If approval voting is used, only one ballot shall be taken. Each delegate shall be permitted to vote for as many of the candidates as he or she wishes. All the votes for all candidates shall be tallied, and the candidate receiving the most votes shall be elected as the nominee; however, if no candidate receives votes from a majority of the voting delegates, then the candidate receiving the most votes shall stand against "none of the above" in a second ballot using the normal balloting procedure.
- Order of nominations. In voting on the nomination of candidates for public office, the offices shall be considered in the reverse of the order in which they appear on the general election ballot.

IV.5.j.5. Acceptance Speeches.

- Such candidates for public office nominated by a Convention as the relevant Executive Committee shall deem appropriate may give acceptance speeches to the Convention.
- Such speeches shall be heard in the same order as the office for which the candidates were nominated were considered for the purpose of nominating the candidates.

IV.5.j.6. Declining to Nominate Candidate for Public Office.

A Convention may decline to nominate any candidate for public office, even if there are persons seeking the Party's nomination for that office.

IV.5.j.7. Procedures for Election to Party Office.

IV.5.j.7.a. Majority Required.

The vote of a majority of the qualified participants voting at the relevant Convention or caucus shall be necessary and sufficient for election to Party office, except for the position of alternate to a national convention, which shall be as provided elsewhere in these rules.

IV.5.j.7.b. Multiple Ballot Procedure.

- Except as provided elsewhere in these Rules, in cases where no candidate receives a majority on the first ballot, the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes on that ballot shall be stricken from all subsequent ballots and this process shall be repeated for as many ballots as necessary for some candidate to secure election.

- After each ballot from which no candidate receives a majority, the Chair shall announce the total vote received by each candidate, including those to be stricken from subsequent ballots.

IV.5.j.7.c. None of the Above.

- Votes cast for None of the Above in voting for a Party office shall be considered valid and properly recorded.
- Should a majority of the votes be cast for “None of the Above” in an election for a Party office, then that office shall be declared vacant and shall be filled as provided elsewhere in these Rules, but none of the persons who sought that office in that election shall be eligible to hold that office for that term.

IV.5.k. News Media Right to Attend.

Representatives of the news media shall have the right to attend all Conventions for the purpose of reporting the proceedings.

IV.6. Combined Conventions.

Each County Executive Committee may choose, with the consent of the State Executive Committee, to combine the Precinct and County Conventions into a single event. This combined convention shall be held at the time normally prescribed for the Precinct Convention. Precinct Chairs would then be elected by Precinct Caucuses.

V. Adoption, Status, Amendment and Publication of Rules.

V.I. Effective Date of Original Rules.

These Rules shall be finally effective upon the final adjournment of the State Convention at which they are adopted.

V.2. Permanent Amendments.

These Rules may be permanently amended, altered or repealed only by a two-thirds vote of a State Convention.

The State Executive Committee, by $\frac{4}{5}$ vote, may renumber, modify spacing, and formatting of these rules as long as it does not change wording, grammar, or intent in any way. Notification of these changes must be sent to all county affiliates within a week of a successful vote.

V.3. Temporary Amendments.

- Between State Conventions these rules may be temporarily amended for good cause by a vote of four-fifths of the entire membership of the State Executive Committee, provided:
 - each member of the Committee shall receive written notice including the full text of any proposed amendment at least two weeks prior to any meeting held to consider temporary amendments to the Rules;
 - or
 - if the vote on the proposal is by mail ballot then the ballot shall contain the full text of any proposed amendment.
- All such temporary amendments shall remain in effect only until the final adjournment of the next State Convention after their adoption, and they must be presented to that Convention for approval in the form of proposed amendments to the Rules.

- If any temporary amendment is rejected by a State Convention following its temporary adoption neither that amendment nor any other having substantially the same effect may be considered again until the next State Convention thereafter.

V.4. Amendments to Statement of Principles of the Party.

Whenever the party by two-thirds vote at the State Convention amends the permanent Statement of Principles of the Party, such vote shall also constitute automatic amendment to the Preamble to these Rules to comply with the amended Statement of Principles.

V.5. Effective Date of Permanent Amendments.

Permanent amendments to these Rules shall become effective upon the final adjournment of the State Convention at which they are adopted except that rules pertaining to the handling or selection of candidates and nominees for public office do not take effect until the end of the current election cycle.

A State Convention, by majority vote, may make any permanent amendments effective immediately upon adoption.

V.6. Permanence and Superiority of Rules.

V.6.a. Superiority.

- These Rules, as permanently amended by State Conventions, shall constitute the permanent and continuing Rules of the Libertarian Party of Texas, wholly superseding, amending, nullifying and rescinding all previous rules, Constitutions, bylaws, and resolutions.
- The State Executive Committee may establish a permanent and continuing set of policies that govern party organization and procedures. These policies shall be created, maintained, or dissolved by the State Executive Committee. No policies may supersede these Rules. Any policies found to contradict or conflict with these Rules are void.
- On subjects not covered by these Rules, the State Chair may specify a temporary rule to take effect at the adjournment of the next meeting of the State Executive Committee if the rule is approved by that body by a four- fifths (4/5) vote. This temporary rule, once approved, is treated as a temporary amendment as described herein.

V.6.b. Permanence.

These Rules shall continue in force until rescinded or permanently changed by action of a State Convention or as temporarily amended by the State Executive Committee as provided herein.

V.7. Publication of Rules and Amendments.

- County Chairs shall be notified of amendments to these rules (whether permanent or temporary) within thirty days following the adoption of such amendments.

- The State Executive Committee shall have copies of these Rules made and shall furnish such copies to any person on request, provided, however, that persons to whom copies of the Rules are furnished may be required to pay the expenses incurred in making and mailing their copies.
 - The State Chair shall ensure that updated rules are sent to the Texas Secretary of State for review within thirty (30) days following the adoption of any temporary or permanent amendments.
