Dear Caryn,

We are thrilled to share some fantastic news with all of you! After an intense Membership Card design contest, we not only have a winning design but also raised approximately $2500 to support our cause. Your dedication and creativity have made this contest a tremendous success, and we couldn't be prouder of our vibrant Libertarian community.

Winning Design:

Congratulations to Carrie Eiler!

A warm congratulations to Carrie Eiler for her outstanding design that shows off the spirit of the Libertarian Party. Carrie's creativity, passion, and commitment to liberty shine through her work, making her the well-deserved winner of our contest.

Thank You for Your Support:

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to every member who participated in the contest, whether by submitting a design, voting, or contributing to the fundraising efforts. Your enthusiasm and support are invaluable, and they enable us to continue funding the efforts to set our nation free.

What's Next?

With the winning design chosen and the funds raised, we are now moving forward with the production of our new membership cards. We are excited to see Carrie's design come to life and to share these cards with you soon. Stay tuned for updates on the production timeline and delivery details.

Once again, congratulations to Carrie Eiler, and thank you to all of our members for your creativity, generosity, and unwavering commitment to the Libertarian Party. Together, we are making a difference and advancing the principles of liberty.
