The Liberty Pledge Newsletter is a monthly publication for the participants in the National Libertarian Party Pledge program. Because of your contribution, we are able to carry on the daily activities of the Party, and we want you to know what we are doing. We also want the opportunity to thank you for your generosity and let you know about others who are helping the Party as volunteers and contributors. So, first, thank you!

TAX PROTEST DAY: 16 APRIL 1984 Enclosed you will find a stat for a tax protest flyer. Another will be found in the March-April issue of LP NEWS. You can add your local Party address and phone number or that of a local contact, take it to a copy shop, and you are ready for tax protest day activities. Don't forget to contact the local media. They expect us to be at the post office when they do their annual coverage of weary tax payers and tax protesters.

ADVERTISE IN LP NEWS -- take advantage of the enclosed discount coupon for a business card ad. Aside from being a great way to advertise, you can help the Party as well!

MARYLAND MAKES 18 STATES WITH PRESIDENTIAL BALLOT STATUS! Ballot drives are in progress in 14 other states. We have had recent legal victories in Kentucky, Wyoming and South Dakota where unreasonable laws have been changed in our favor. Recent legislation in Kansas has also been favorable. We have legal action pending in 7 more states.

OVER 200 LETTERS TO THE EDITOR have been pledged to the Libertarian Letters Project.

P.S. You may find it easier to have your pledge automatically credited to the LP without writing a check each month. If you would like to convert to MasterCard or VISA, please fill out and return this form before the beginning of next month. Thanks!

☐ MASTERCARD ☐ VISA
Amount $____________

Card Number ____________________ Expiration Date ____________

Signature ________________________  Name on Card ________________________

beginning ________________________, Until ________________________ Bergland asegura ser la opción presidencial

Por Fidel H. Rodríguez
Reportero de LA OPINIÓN

El precandidato a la Presidencia de los Estados Unidos por el Partido Libertario, David Bergland, aseguró ayer que solo su programa político puede restablecer los derechos individuales que

Libertarian candidate hopes to open crack in two-party dominance

By JERRY PUGNETTI
The News Tribune, Tacoma, WA

26 Feb 84

A vote for a Libertarian Party candidate this year is a vote to abolish the federal income tax, dismantle Social Security, legalize prostitution and bring every U.S. soldier home from abroad, says the party's choice for U.S. vice president.

"It's been said that there are things in there that would offend everyone," said vice-presidential candidate Jim Lewis about the Libertarian Party's choice for U.S. vice president. Bergland, a 48-year-old lawyer from California, won't be on the primary ballot in New Hampshire today, but plans to be on every ballot in the state.

By DIANE LOISELLE
Monitor Staff Writer

28 Feb 84

The Libertarian Philosophy: Individu

Candidate Plans
To Make All Ballots

By DIANE LOISELLE
Monitor Staff Writer

Most Americans are Libertarians but haven't discovered it yet, according to David Bergland, the 1984 presidential candidate of the Libertarian Party.

The party agrees with those who think they should be able to do what they want as long as it doesn't infringe on the rights of others. The government's job, libertarians say, is to guard individual rights.

"The only proper laws are those that penalize such conduct as murder, rape, kidnapping, robbery, burglary, arson, trespass, and fraud because such conduct necessarily violates someone's rights," Bergland said in an interview in Concord yesterday.

Bergland, a 48-year-old lawyer from California, won't be on the primary ballot today, but plans to be on every ballot in the country in November.

Each state sets its own requirements for alternative parties. New Hampshire asks for 3,000 signatures; Florida requires 50,000 signatures and a $5,000 fee.

The Libertarian Party is 12 years old and prides itself on refusing federal matching federal funds, which Bergland calls "stolen property." He says his campaign budget is between $1 million and $3 million. He admits he doesn't expect the government to ever have a say in his campaign budget.

The Libertarian Party's presidential candidate is David Bergland, who is running on a platform that includes abolition of the federal income tax, dismantle Social Security, legalize prostitution and bring every U.S. soldier home from abroad.

Los Angeles Times News Service

LOS ANGELES — Monday's Iowa caucuses and the attendant media blitz will hardly trigger a raised eyebrow on David Bergland's handsome face.

He was named the Libertarian Party's standard bearer last September and has been on the stump ever since seeking support from, he said Sunday, "the 50 percent of the people or more who have opted out of traditional politics."

Echoing the theme of some of the so-called "second-tier" Democratic Party candidates who have been chasing front-runner Walter Mondale, Bergland, 48, a Costa Mesa, Calif. lawyer, said he expects the Libertarian movement to grow because "there's a real demand for alternatives in the traditional (political) marketplace."

Founded in 1971, the Libertarian Party is a political movement that emphasizes individual freedom and limited government. The party seeks to replace the two-party system with a system of limited government and individual liberty.

Los Angeles Times News Service

WASHINGTON — Pretend it was Jan. 20, 1985, and that someone named David Bergland has been elected president of the United States.

In this scenario, Bergland has defeated Republicans and Democrats to become the nation's first Libertarian Party president.

Libertarians believe in Individuals is supr

for anti-gov't Liberty

By Tom Breen
WASHINGTON TIMES NEWS SERVICE

WASHINGTON — On this date, the "50 percent of the people more who have opted out of traditional politics."

Elected president of the United States.

Libertarians believe in government-is the public to be

The goal of Bergland, a lawyer from California, won't be on the primary ballot in New Hampshire today, but plans to be on every ballot in the state.

By JERRY PUGNETTI
The News Tribune, Tacoma, WA

26 Feb 84

A vote for a Libertarian Party candidate this year is a vote to abolish the federal income tax, dismantle Social Security, legalize prostitution and bring every U.S. soldier home from abroad, says the party's choice for U.S. vice president.

"It's been said that there are things in there that would offend everyone," said vice-presidential candidate Jim Lewis about the Libertarian Party's choice for U.S. vice president. Bergland, a 48-year-old lawyer from California, won't be on the primary ballot in New Hampshire today, but plans to be on every ballot in the state.

Bergland, a 48-year-old lawyer from California, won't be on the primary ballot today, but plans to be on every ballot in the country in November.

Each state sets its own requirements for alternative parties. New Hampshire asks for 3,000 signatures; Florida requires 50,000 signatures and a $5,000 fee.

The Libertarian Party is 12 years old and prides itself on refusing federal matching federal funds, which Bergland calls "stolen property." He says his campaign budget is between $1 million and $3 million. He admits he doesn't expect the government to ever have a say in his campaign budget.