N.Y. LIBERTARIAN CONVENTION '79

May 12 & 13 at the Turf Inn Albany, NY

WELCOME!

You're invited to the N.Y. Libertarian Convention to be held Saturday, May 12 & Sunday, May 13 at the Turf Inn, 205 Wolf Rd. in Albany. An exciting and stimulating program is planned which should please both the veteran Libertarian as well as those just discovering the Libertarian movement.

With the Libertarian Party truly entering a 'New Dawn' of successful political activity, this convention will start us on the path toward a phenomenal presidential campaign. Though this is officially a business convention, the serious 'stuff' will be confined to Sunday afternoon, leaving all day Saturday and Sunday morning for films, speakers, discussion, mixing, eating, partying & other surprises. Sunday afternoon is reserved for selecting delegates to the LP Presidential Nominating Convention in L.A. this coming September, electing officers, and other business.

Above all this convention will be an opportunity to spend a couple of days surrounded by individuals who share your belief in the ideal of human liberty.
