Can't Miss Article of the Week:

Thank you for the overwhelmingly positive response to the all-new LP News. We're thrilled to bring you these real articles written by libertarians, for libertarians, in this wonderful new format. If you haven't seen it yet, now's your chance to check it out!

This article, written by Mr. Roy Minet in Region 5, has been the most popular article this week. Check it out, then leave the author a comment:

Libertarians Should Advocate for AADV, Not IRV (or RCV)

"Continued use of the truly awful Plurality voting method is the single largest obstacle (yes, even more serious than ballot access) to any other party being able to effectively compete with the two old, declining parties. But no Ranked-Choice Voting (RCV) method works well either. The states of Alaska and Maine switched to IRV (Instant Runoff Voting) in 2016, but there has been no discernable benefit for Libertarians or anyone else."
