LIBERTARIANS SELECT SCHUBERT

The Free Libertarian Party endorsed Leland W. Schubert as its candidate for Attorney General of the State of New York at its annual state convention in Manhattan - March 29-31.

Mr. Schubert thinks, in the interest of economy and protection of privacy, that power of the Attorney General should be curtailed.

" The office is inefficient ", says Mr. Schubert. " It wastes time and money interfering with free enterprise."

Mr. Schubert is a private investor and lives in the Murray Hill section of New York City.
