Caryn Ann,

Julian Assange, founder of WikiLeaks, faces his potential final appeal against extradition to the United States starting tomorrow. If extradited, he could face up to 175 years in prison for publishing classified documents exposing war crimes and government abuses.

We must act now to defend Julian Assange and free press!

Here's what you can do:

- Call your Representative and Senators: Urge them to oppose the extradition of Julian Assange and to support House Resolution 934, which calls for dropping all charges against him. Use the provided resources to easily find their contact information:
 - Find your Representative: house.gov
 - Find your Senators: senate.gov
- Share this email and take action online: Spread awareness about the hearing and encourage others to contact their representatives. Use the hashtag #FreeAssange.

Together, we can send a powerful message to our elected officials: Julian Assange must not be extradited!
