

Learn the mysterious power to un-cloud men's minds...
at the
1973 Libertarian Party Convention
Cleveland, Ohio June 8-10

Tired of "conferences" where an endless series of speakers give lengthy monologues on "the meaning of meaning" and "the role of frisbee tournaments in the ideal society" . . . while you sit silent, learning nothing of how to actually hasten the day when that society becomes a reality?

If so, you'll find the 1973 Libertarian Party Convention a refreshing change. Because this will be a gathering of people who already have their heads together, and are looking for ways to work more effectively for Freedom In Our Time.

Three major sessions are scheduled. One on the use of mass media. One on using specific issues to gain public support for the libertarian movement. And one on fund raising. Each of these sessions will be led by a panel of people who have actually done these things . . . and successfully. But the panelists won't be the only ones talking; everyone who has a contribution to make will be given an opportunity to do so.

In addition, there will be a number of "special interest" workshops . . . social events . . . and plenty of free time for informal rap sessions.

The 100 people who attended the '72 LP Convention described it as "the best libertarian get-together ever." This year's will be bigger (estimated attendance: 250) and even better. So don't miss out on the libertarian event of the coming summer. Register now; you don't even have to be an LP member to attend. Registration fee for LP members is $8 prior to May 15, $10 after May 15. For non-members, it's $10 prior to May 15 and $12.50 after May 15.

RESERVATION FORM ON OTHER SIDE.

Additional material, including a reservation card for the Holiday Inn where the Convention is being held, will be sent to all registrants.
