Summary

Secretary Caryn Ann Harlos was investigated and unjustly ousted from her position by Libertarian National Committee board members, including a chair, who are embroiled in undisclosed conflicts of interest. This brief will demonstrate why the judicial committee should restore Harlos to her elected position post haste.

This brief examines three conflicts of interest board members who held a role in the investigation and suspension of Harlos and why the judicial committee must not allow the board to continue to retaliate against Secretary Harlos for doing the job the delegates elected her to do. Additionally, this brief shows examples of how both Secretary Harlos and former Treasurer Todd Hagopian have been retaliated against for their opposition to the Kennedy fundraising committee and therefore their appeal of the judicial committee relating to the Kennedy fundraising committee.

Chair Angela McArdle

Collusion to keep LP Presidential Nominee off Colorado ballot

Chair McArdle became enraged when Secretary Harlos put Libertarian Party nominee Chase Oliver on the Colorado ballot. Despite initially leading the LNC to believe otherwise, McArdle went so far as to try to remove Oliver from the Colorado ballot as can be found in public e-mails released from the Colorado Secretary of State.

According to leaked messages, McArdle encouraged people to support the Colorado LP placing RFK Jr. on the ballot instead of Oliver. Additionally, McArdle attacked our Presidential nominee in the process of doing so.

Subject: Something interesting from the Libertarian Party of Colorado

They claim that the Chair has currently told the Colorado Secretary of State to withdraw the Certificate of Nomination. I told them that I do not consent to withdraw and will resubmit if necessary.

Only the full LNC can order such a thing. I would ask the Chair to confirm. In any event, I have let them know that I do not withdraw my certificate – no harm if LPCO is just spreading rumours.

In Liberty, Caryn Ann Harlos

I'm going to discuss the RFK controversy with the MC LNC members tomorrow on our prep call but I recommend the MC host a special meeting with Hannah to discuss the benefits she gained from her agreement with RFK jr. Maybe she has to wait to announce them but she got a lot out of concessions/benefits from his team and I think we need to hear her out before dismissing this as a prag move. We did not get anything we wanted out of this POTUS race, as a caucus, so I am working directly with the Trump campaign to use Chase's campaign to pull from Biden in exchange for ABOLISHING THE DEPT OF ED and putting a libertarian in his cabinet and FREEING ROSS ULBRICHT. Is this a prag move?? Did the prags ever try to abolish an entire agency?? What have the prags done at the national level to actually advance any of our principles and reduce the size and scope of the federal government?

We are at freedomfest trying to fundraise and do work. This week is not convenient for any meeting and you know that. You didn't run any of this by me. A time sensitive fundraising need and opportunity have arisen so we will meet and do what needs to be done.

You will not usurp my authority as chair. You have taken unilateral actions this week that have put us at risk of legal action. To be clear, you acted outside the scope of your authority when you sent that form to the SOS, knowing that lpco had entered into a written agreement with Kennedy. Now you want to rope us in and have us sanction your actions and possibly take legal action or involve us if you are sued for it.

I want to make it abundantly clear you had no authority to do so and I did not know about it. We are not getting pulled into a lawsuit on your behalf.

I've also learned that you have personally threatened to sue lpco and sent a demand letter, so you have a serious conflict of interest here and should not even be voting on any legal action from this board.

Angela McArdle
LNC Chair

One potential reason why the Chair may have wanted the Colorado Libertarian Party to put RFK Jr. on the ballot and not party nominee Chase Oliver is from the FEC website under Coordinated Party Expenditures.

Committees authorized to make coordinated party expenditures

National committee

Only a national party committee has a coordinated party expenditure limit for the party's presidential nominee.

A national party committee also has a coordinated party expenditure limit for the party's House and Senate candidates in the general election.

An argument could be made that if RFK Jr. was on the ballot as a Libertarian, even in a single state, the party could legally coordinate a joint fundraising committee with RFK Jr. Despite RFK Jr. not being listed on the ballot in any state as a Libertarian candidate, the party went forward with a joint fundraising committee.

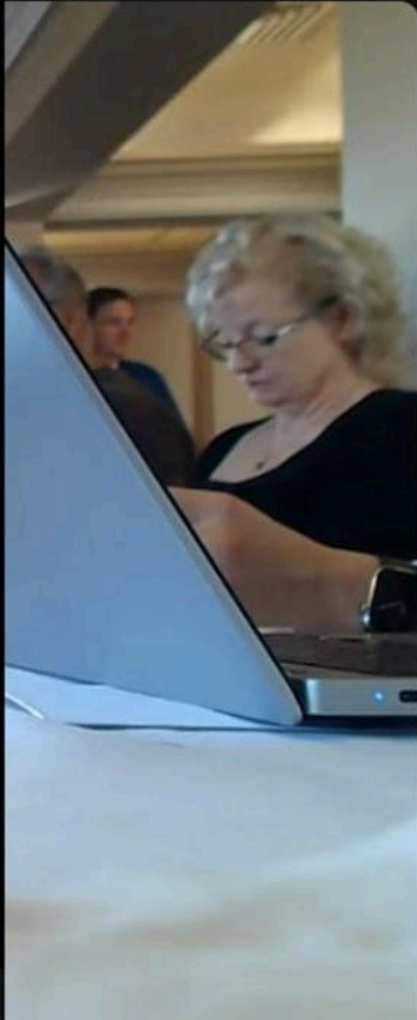

It is outside of the scope of this brief and my expertise to discuss the legality of the Kennedy joint fundraising committee.

McArdle Financial Conflicts of Interest

Chair Angela McArdle has personally benefited from her lobbying the LNC to establish the Kennedy Victory Fund joint fundraising committee. These contributions were not disclosed to the Libertarian National Committee and no financial accounting has been released to the LNC or the Libertarian Party delegates and members.

Party members asking questions of the financial conflicts of interest on the livestream of the last LNC meeting were ignored and ridiculed by members the LNC and had their comments deleted.

The Facts:

- Chair McArdle has set up two new organizations in 2024 that profit off the Libertarian Party's joint fundraising agreement with Robert F. Kennedy Jr.
 - Libertarian Unity PAC received $19,700 from the Kennedy Victory Fund *Note: Much of this money may need to be disbursed back to the LNC based on the fundraising agreement
 - Rescue The West, INC received $25,000 from the Kennedy Victory Fund sent to McArdle's personal address according to FEC reports
- McArdle has also benefited from the association with Kennedy
 - A total of $795,700 has flowed from Kennedy based organizations back to McArdle organizations
- On September 23, the Libertarian Party official e-mail list was used to send out an email with a fundraising link sent directly to Rescue the West, INC.
 - As of December 10, Rescue the West, INC has raised $456,124 additional dollars from the GiveSendGo website

Back home from Providence, Rhode Island, where we had the most efficient, productive LNC meeting in history. Naturally, my haters are enraged and are working on another time wasting JC appeal. Lolbert lawfare.. lolfare.

Anyway, I will continue to advocate for our political prisoners & our friendly cabinet picks while the Pinky & the Brain weirdos plan their next cringe steps.

Todd bailed on his job last term and was super shitty the last 2 months of the term but I didn't say shit about it publicly because I valued the working relationship and refused to throw him under the bus. He's got major TDS and clearly turned on me as a result of having Trump at the convention.

He was wrong about it, btw. No one was injured. It was a success. Ross will be freed.

Todd is also targeting state parties that have signed onto the Kennedy JFC. He's discussed filing complaints with different agencies to harass or fine our affiliates. None of these state affiliates have ever done anything to him. Thankfully, he is not intelligent enough to understand how most FEC regulations work. It's super gross. Watch out, guys. Who knows what else he might try.

The Libertarian Party has been the victim of COINTEL PRO tactics for many years, if not decades. Tomorrow, I am re-submitting my FOIA request, and I will begin to release sections a redacted report that spawned the latest round of lawfare we are currently being subjected to.

It's difficult to tell if the operatives who are smearing and harassing us are genuinely fed-compromised individuals or they are the product of a late stage operation that was designed to draw in malcontents and mentally unstable types. I suspect it's a mix of both.

No other organization has such a perverse reverence for Robert's Rules of Order. They go so far as to lovingly call it "The Cult of RONR". The tongue in cheek RONR worship has turned to gnashing of teeth. They hate when we elevate actual libertarian policy wins and candidates over their grotesque, deformed social club.

Of course, there are "very fine people" in the Libertarian Party, and that's why I've stuck around to fight the feds, freaks and weirdos. Serious candidates deserve better. The country deserves better. The feds deserve to be cast out.

Adrian Malagon

Adrian Malagon had a conflict of interest when Chairing the committee to investigate Secretary Harlos.

The Facts:

- Malagon is currently an alternate to the national committee
- If Malagon were to lose his position as California Chair at the California convention in February, he runs the risk of losing his LNC alternate spot
- Malagon motioned to remove Secretary Harlos from being present for the discussion for her removal
- Malagon has been named acting secretary since the suspension of Secretary Harlos
- Malagon was overheard by Secretary Harlos joking with other LNC members about Harlos being called her “predecessor” in referring to the proposed policy manual change which would give the LNC the ability to remove any member for any reason they deem necessary

For the record, I've never valued Todd.
