

A lot is happening in the LPNY

The 2018 State Convention is just a week away, and we will be nominating our candidates for statewide office, including for governor. This will launch us into an exciting campaign season as we petition to get our candidates on the ballot, promote the message of liberty, and pursue recognized party status.

Several of our counties have held their own conventions, and there are more events to come. Stay up to date with what is going on, and check out an overview of recent happenings in the LPNY below.

2018 State Convention

The 2018 LPNY Convention will be held in Albany from April 20-22, 2018. Convention schedule, details, and online registration is up on the website. Party Enrollment Issues

Is your political party affiliation at the New York State Board of Elections (NYS BoE) correct, or is it wrongfully listed as “BLANK”? In a recent blog post, Chairman Mark Glogowski discusses issues with registering with the Libertarian Party with the Board of Elections and a MEMO that was issued by the Board of Elections to instruct county Board of Elections to create accurate voter registration records.
