

The Libertarian Party of San Mateo County

Endorsements

Statewide Primary is on June 3

County elections and a statewide primary will be held on June 3. The Libertarian Party of San Mateo County has the following endorsements:

Jonathan Jaech for Attorney General — Jaech is endorsed by the Libertarian Party of California and by the Libertarian Party of San Mateo County. Jaech opposes prosecution of victimless crimes and supports investigation of police abuse and government corruption. For more information visit: <http://www.jaech.info/>

Michael Stogner for San Mateo County Board of Supervisors, District 3 — Stogner is endorsed by the Libertarian Party of California and by the Libertarian Party of San Mateo County. He supports accountability and responsibility in local government and is an outspoken advocate for whistle-blowers of government waste and abuse. For more information or to volunteer visit: <http://stognerforsupervisor.com>.

NO on Measure AA — Measure AA is a $300,000,000 bond measure for the Midpeninsula Regional Open Space District. The District purchases private land for open space reserves, increasing the cost of land. The District already has an annual budget of over $43,000,000, it should manage with what it has now.

County News

County Party in San Mateo Daily Journal

April 12 — In an op-ed entitled "Yes, Virginia, there is a choice", author John McDowell quotes county party Vice Chair Kevin Duewel: "In a left-leaning county like San Mateo, the Libertarian Party is a much more strategic vehicle than the Republican Party for advocates of limited government and individual liberty."

State Party Convention

March 30 — Delegates from across the state attended the Libertarian Party of California State Convention in Visalia, California. County Secretary Tom Lippman participated in the Platform Committee meeting, which proposed a slate of amendments to the state platform. County Vice Chair Kevin Duewel was elected as an at-large member to the state executive committee. Michael Stogner was endorsed by the Libertarian Party of California in his race for supervisor.

State Senator Leland Yee Running Guns

March 26 — Leland Yee was arrested by the FBI for public corruption and gunrunning charges. Yee was a renown proponent of gun control, stating that no individuals in the state of California should "own assault weapons ... no debate, no discussion." Yee is accused of dealing firearms and illegally importing firearms from the Philippines.

Michael Stogner for Supervisor

March 14 — Libertarian Party of San Mateo County endorsed Michael Stogner for San Mateo County Board of Supervisors, District 3. If you live in Pacifica, Half Moon
