Libertarian Party of New York
https://lpny.org/

Facebook:
www.facebook.com/LPNYOfficial
Twitter: @LPNYOfficial
Instagram: @LPNYOfficial

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jim Rosenbeck Resigns as Chairman of Libertarian Party of New York

BATAVIA, New York, April 15, 2020 – The Libertarian Party of New York announced today that Interim State Committee (ISC) Chairman Jim Rosenbeck has resigned for personal reasons, effective immediately. Pursuant to the Party's rules, First Vice-Chairman Tony D'Orazio will succeed Mr. Rosenbeck as Chairman, and Second Vice-Chairman Tucker Coburn will succeed Mr. D'Orazio as the First Vice-Chairman. The vacant Second Vice-Chairman position will be discussed and filled according to the party rules at a future ISC meeting.

Chairman-Designate D'Orazio says, "Jim Rosenbeck has been a great leader and a good friend, and I'd like to personally thank him for his hard work for the Libertarian Party all these years. Because of his work, we are now well-positioned to continue our rapid growth."

Mr. Rosenbeck served as the Chairman of the ballot-access Libertarian Party of New York since its creation following Larry Sharpe's historical showing for the party in the 2018 Gubernatorial Election. He also previously served as Chairman of the pre-ballot access Party corporation in 2018, and as a Vice-Chairman the preceding three years.

Mr. D'Orazio served as the First Vice-Chairman of the ballot-access Libertarian Party of New York since its creation. He also previously served as Vice-Chairman of the pre-ballot access Party corporation in 2018, and as a member at large the preceding two years.

For more information about the Libertarian Party of New York, visit Facebook at www.facebook.com/LPNYOfficial, Twitter @LPNYOfficial, Instagram @LPNYOfficial, or their website, lpny.org.

-end-