A New York Christmas Carol

“At this festive season of the year, Governor, it is more than usually desirable that we should make some slight provision for the people of New York, who suffer greatly at the present time.”

“Bah!” said Andrew Scrooge, “Humbug!”

“Many thousands are in want of other parties to vote for, sir.”

“Are there no Democrats?”

“Plenty of Democrats...”

“And Republicans?” demanded Andrew Scrooge. “Are they still in operation?”

“Both offer no solutions, sir...”

“Those who wish to vote must go there.”

“Many can't go there; and many would rather leave the state.”

“If they would rather leave the state,” said Andrew Scrooge, “they had better do it, and decrease the surplus population.”

Last month, Andrew Cuomo's hand-picked commission voted to kill third parties in New York State. We don't expect the Ghost of Christmas Past to help Andrew Scrooge see the wrong of his ways. We need you to help us fight this grave injustice and preserve voter choice.

Your donation of $25 dollars will help us fight. (And if you can do more please, please, please do!)
