Boddie campaign to hold rally Sept. 13

Richard Boddie, LP candidate for U.S. Senate and arguably the party's most dynamic public speaker, will host a rally for supporters and the general public on Sunday, Sept. 13.

The event will begin at 3 p.m. in Randell's Restaurant and Jazz Club, located in the ground floor of the National Bank of Long Beach building, 3 Hutton Centre Drive in Santa Ana (see map on page 4 of this newsletter).

Boddie's appearance here, and at the L.A. County Fair opening in Pomona the previous day, are part of his plans to campaign throughout California on a full-time basis beginning after the Labor Day weekend.

A Boddie speech is an excellent "first LP event" for non-libertarians to experience. The Huntington Beach motivational speaker is incredibly persuasive and has been known to bring a meeting-hall full of Rotarians to their feet clamoring for the libertarian philosophy of free minds and markets.

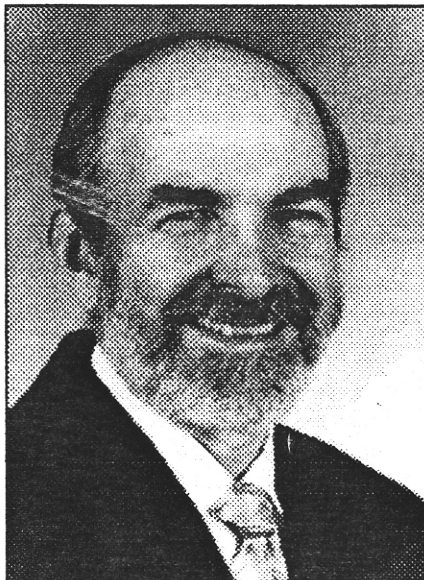

Boddie is running for the "short seat," currently held by political appointee John Seymour (R). At the L.A. County Fair he will be joined by Bay Area Libertarian June Gents, who is running for the "long seat" being vacated by Alan Cranston (D), and by Andre Marrou, the LP candidate for President.

You are cordially invited to a Presidential town meeting

ANDRE MARROU

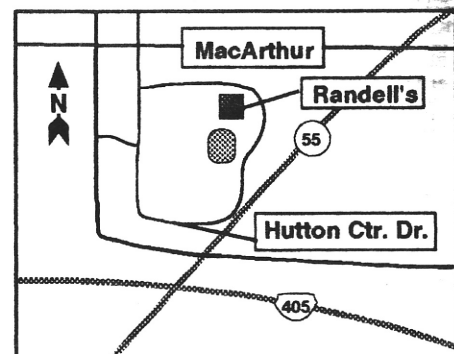

Come and observe a real, live alternative to the "business as usual" parties' candidates!

Andre Marrou, Libertarian Party candidate for President, will lead a New England-style town meeting where he will outline his plans for solving the nation's problems and listen to your concerns.

The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. on Thursday, September 10 at Randell's Art Gallery, located in the ground floor of the National Bank of Long Beach building, 3 Hutton Centre Drive, in Santa Ana.

Preceding the town meeting, there will be a fundraising dinner for the Marrou campaign starting at 5 p.m. in the restaurant adjacent to the art gallery. Admission is $50, or $100 to sit at the Marrou table.

For further information contact Marrou Campaign coordinator Gary Copeland at 545-9022.

Notes From the Chair

Candidates rally, volunteers mobilize

By Brian Schar
OCLP Chair

The big event this month is Libertarian Party presidential candidate Andre Marrou's town meeting on Sept. 10. This event, to be held at the Everhart Gallery at Randell's, (3 Hutton Centre Drive) starting at 7 p.m., is expected to draw one of the largest crowds in OCLP history.

Bring a friend or two; they don't have to be Libertarians to be interested in seeing a presidential candidate. The media will be there in force; I'd like to give them a shot of a room filled to capacity with hundreds of supporters. Be there!

Another exciting event coming up locally is a Richard Boddie rally to be held Sept. 13. (As of publication deadline, details are still being finalized, and a special card giving location and other details will be sent to the newsletter mailing list.) With your support, this informal event can draw dozens of new people to hear our most dynamic speaker and learn what Libertarians are all about. On top of that, this rally will be a lot of fun. Be there too!

Locally, the city director/precinct manager organization will be revised by the officers prior to the business meeting. As the election approaches, it is more important than ever to have an effective framework for activism. Stealing a phrase from Tip O'Neill, all politics is local, and it doesn't get more local than knocking on doors or leaving flyers on doorsteps in your neighborhood. I want the OCLP to be ready to initiate that kind of grassroots action before the election. With our combined individual efforts, we can boost our vote totals substantially.

From Sept. 11 to Oct. 4, the Libertarian Party of Los Angeles County is running an outreach booth at the Los Angeles County Fair. They have paid the entire $1,800 cost to gain access to this event, which will benefit the regional organizations in Orange, Riverside, and San Bernardino County as well.

During its 23-day run, the fair attracts an astonishing one million visitors, many of whom eagerly want to hear our message. We have a chance to reach a large portion of those one million visitors if the booth can be staffed smoothly and professionally by volunteer activists. Volunteers are needed, since 552 man-hours of staffing have yet to be filled. This a great chance for candidates to gain exposure to thousands of people; I encourage them especially to help.

There are a limited number of passes for fair entry and parking; if you sign up early, you have a much better chance of getting a freebie. To volunteer, call Gail Lightfoot at (714) 623-1117. The best time to reach her is approximately 7:30 p.m. Let's not let this opportunity slip away. This is a great chance to have fun and promote the LP at the same time.

The Libertarian solution, in a nutshell

To restore prosperity, freedom and peace to America, we must restore our libertarian heritage.

As individuals we must return to the principle of tolerance and respect for the rights of others. Activities which are crimes for individuals — theft, assault, kidnapping, intimidation and murder — must be crimes for government agents as well. Socialized "public services" must be privatized and replaced by efficient, free-market businesses. The crushing burden of confiscatory taxes and suffocating regulations must be lifted from our economy. The use of foreign aid and our military to prop up repressive dictatorships must end.

As the revolutions sweeping Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union have demonstrated, the only power that government ultimately has is the power that we give to it. If the Russian and Ukrainian peoples can overthrow 74 years of tyranny with their bare hands and raw courage, we can change the course of this nation.

America can again be a land of liberty and unlimited opportunity. Through peaceful yet determined action, we can replace corrupt and tyrannical government and create a new dawn for liberty in America.

Top 10 ways to get the word out

Letters to news media have a demonstrated impact on the visibility of the Libertarian Party and its ideals. Letters to newspaper opinion pages inject our philosophy into public debate. Letters to media executives can persuade them to give our activities better attention.

Now would be a good time to write Steve Scully, political editor at C-Span, and suggest his network re-run the 1992 LP National Convention which it covered fairly expansively. Scully can be written care of C-SPAN, 400 North Capitol N.W., Suite 650, Washington, D.C. 20001. His phone number is (202) 707-3220.
