Fellow Libertarians,

Working together we continue to make history. Over 200 candidates for local office are on the ballot in New York State this year! This unprecedented accomplishment is a testimony to the continued growth of our state-wide Libertarian Party infrastructure and enrollment.

Join me in making a personal statement for liberty on election day. Show up and vote. Local election wins are a crucial component in building a strong party foundation. Let's make sure that our voices are heard.

Early voting begins on October 26th and runs through November 3rd. Contact your county board of My next message to you will come after the election and will include a report on results. I look forward to sharing the news of election victories by libertarian candidates.

Your vote is important. No matter what the goal in life, just showing up is an essential part of the formula for success.

In addition to voting, please consider clicking below to donate even just $20 to bolster our fight for liberty in 2019 and beyond!

Thank You!
