Robert Schuon and Francesco Olvera were elected to the Elections Oversight Committee.

Delegate Selection Committee Chair Andrew Kolstee issued a revised report of additional delegates and alternates (Exhibit 5) who would be selected by using the previously adopted Rubric in the Policy Manual. Motion by Christopher Olenski to amend the Rubric in the Policy Manual to state that “Any State Committee member who has missed the past two State Committee meetings without advance notice shall be ineligible to serve as a Delegate or Alternate” was seconded by Charles Roggen and debated. Daniel Donnelly asked how many Delegates or Alternates currently assigned by the Rubric this would affect. Andrew Kolstee stated that no current or proposed delegates would be affected. Motion by Steven Becker to amend the Olenski motion by striking the words “or Alternate” was seconded by Daniel Donnelly and debated, and passed 14-13-1 (Erin Becker, Steven Becker, Steven Padgett, and Daniel Donnelly voted ‘aye’ by voice vote due to inability to vote on Porcupine). Motion by Chris Olenski to amend his original motion to remove the words “the past” was seconded by Charles Roggen and debated. Motion by Michael Rebmann to refer the issue of the wording of the Policy Manual to the Rules Committee was seconded by Michael Gately and was debated. Motion by Michael Rebmann to call the question on the referral was seconded by Robert Schuon and passed by a two-thirds voice vote. The motion to refer to the Rules Committee passed by voice vote.

Motion by Len Morlock to ratify the list of Delegates and Alternates according to the revised Delegate Report (Exhibit 5) was seconded by Michael Rebmann and passed without objection.

Chair Andrew Kolstee proposed to appoint a vetting committee for the appointment of a Outreach Director and Communications Director. Cody Anderson, Justin Pelletier, Michael Gately, and Steven Becker volunteered to serve on the Committee. Michael Gately volunteered to chair the committee, and Andrew Kolstee appointed him as Chair of the Vetting committee for Outreach Director and Communications Director.

Renewal of Jame VanDewalker’s appointment as Acting County Chair of Allegany County on December 31, 2023, which will expire on March 31, 2025 was approved without objection.

Appointment of Samuel Hordeski as Acting County Chair and County Liaison of Cortland County, which will expire on June 30, 2024 was approved without objection.

Appointment of Michael Gately as Acting County Chair and County Liaison of Delaware County, which will expire on June 30, 2024 was approved without objection.

Andrew Kolstee and Michael Rebmann made announcements of updates to the schedule and registration availability for the March 16-17 Convention in Watkins Glen.

Motion by Blay Tarnoff that “No person shall be nominated for a stand-in for Presidential or Vice-Presidential who has not completed and notarized a valid certificate of declination” was seconded by Richard Purtell. Christopher Olenski’s point of order that this has the form of a Rule that would limit the power of the State Committee was not sustained by the Chair.

Amendment by Karyn Keniry Thompson to substitute “promissory note” for “certificate of declination” was seconded by Robert Schuon and debated. Christopher Olenski’s point of order that this is an improper legal form to bind the candidate was sustained by the Chair, who ruled Thompson’s motion out of order.

Mark Braiman called for a quorum. Thirty (30) members were present out of sixty (60) members of the State Committee, so a quorum was not present and no official business could be conducted.

Call for the Orders of the Day by William Cody Anderson ended a further brief informal discussion.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:14 pm

Mark Stephen Braiman,

Secretary.
