The Libertarian Party National Convention was held May 24-27, 2024 in Washington, D.C. and we have our nominees! Chase Oliver for President and Mike ter Maat for Vice President!

New York had a full delegation of 41 Delegates. The business of the convention opened on Friday, May 24 where the credentials report and agenda were adopted. Friday evening's events include Robert F. Kennedy, Jr. speaking to the convention, regional caucuses, the Vice Presidential debate (with Clint Russell and Larry Sharpe), and Vivik Ramaswany addressing the convention. This was followed by a comedy night, and there was also an "Enemies of the State Dance Party" which honored Edward Snowden, Julian Assange, Ian Freeman, Ross Ulbricht, and Roger Ver.

On Saturday, May 25, there were two rounds of voting for LNC Chair. In the first round of voting, New York voted as follows: Angela McArdle (14), Mark Rutherford (11), Steven Nekhaila (4), Ken Moellman (4), and Jorge Besada (1). Besada was dropped while Nekhaila and Moellman withdrew. In the second round, New York voted as follows: McArdle (23), Rutherford (17), and NOTA (1). New York matched with the National result, as Angela McArdle was re-elected LNC Chair. In the evening, the major event was former President Donald Trump speaking to the convention, and from among the Libertarians in the room, he was met with mostly boos as he claimed to be Libertarian and do Libertarian things. There were very few cheers, one example being Trump's alleged promise to free Ross Ulbricht.

On Sunday, May 26, business continued. Presidential nominations took up most of the morning and early afternoon. New York Delegates were also involved in this. Michael Rebmann gave one of the nominating speeches for Michael

Rectenwald while Larry Sharpe, Lars Mapstead’s running mate, gave a nominating speech for Mapstead.

When it was time to vote in Round 1 for President, New York’s vote was as follows: Mike ter Maat (13), Jacob Hornberger (6), Michael Rectenwald (5), Lars Mapstead (4), Robert F. Kennedy, Jr. (3), Chase Oliver (3), Joshua Smith (3), Art Olivier (1), a write-in for Donald Trump (1), and NOTA (1). Nationally, Rectenwald was leading in the first round. Candidates under 5% were dropped from the ballot: Charles Ballay, Robert F. Kennedy, Jr., Art Olivier, and Toad.

We proceeded with Round 2 for the Presidential nomination. New York’s vote was as follows: Mike ter Maat (15), Michael Rectenwald (8), Lars Mapstead (7), Jacob Hornberger (4), Chase Oliver (3), Joshua Smith (1), and NOTA (1). Nationally, Rectenwald stayed in the lead, but no candidate reached a majority. Jacob Hornberger was eliminated after Round 2. While waiting for the results, Former Congressman and the Libertarian Party’s 1988 nominee for President, Dr. Ron Paul, spoke to the convention for a little over a half hour.

After Round 2, with nominations complete for LNC Vice-Chair, Secretary, and Treasurer, we proceeded to vote for those three offices in addition to Round 3 for the Presidential nomination. Special thanks to Chance Haywood and Steve Becker for assisting me with this. New York’s results were as follows, having been tallied just after 5:30 p.m., which was the scheduled time of adjournment. However, the convention business was far from over.

For President, Round 3, New York voted: Mike ter Maat (18), Michael Rectenwald (8), Lars Mapstead (6), Chase Oliver (6), Joshua Smith (1), and NOTA (1). Nationally, Rectenwald continued to lead and Joshua Smith was eliminated after Round 3.

For Vice-Chair, New York voted as follows: Mark Rutherford (25), Hannah Goodman (11), Josh Hlavka (3), and NOTA (1). New York matched the result, and Mark Rutherford was elected Vice-Chair.

For Secretary, New York voted as follows: Caryn Ann Harlos (19), Mimi Robson (11), Shawn Levasseur (9), and NOTA (1). New York again matched the result, with Caryn Ann Harlos re-elected Secretary.

For Treasurer, New York voted as follows: William Redpath (24), Patrick Mitchell (9), Allison Spink (6), and NOTA (1). New York once again matched the result, with William Redpath elected Treasurer.

While waiting for the results, Lisa Gansky, Chair of the Memorial Subcommittee gave an introduction to the subcommittee’s work, followed by New York’s Mark Axinn, speaking before the memorial video was shown. The video included New York Libertarians Becky Akers and Chris Garvey, who passed away within the last two years.

For the Presidential nomination, New York voted as follows for Round 4: Mike ter Maat (21), Michael Rectenwald (8), Lars Mapstead (6), Chase Oliver (5), and NOTA (1). Nationally, Rectenwald kept his lead and Lars Mapstead was eliminated after this round. The gala was supposed to begin at 7 p.m., but we were not even close to finishing. Fortunately, the Pover-tarian Caucus had pizzas available as the marathon business session moved forward.

For Round 5 for President, New York’s vote was as follows: Mike ter Maat (25), Chase Oliver (7), Michael Rectenwald (7), and NOTA (1). Recetenwald continued to lead nationally and Mike ter Maat, who continuously led in New York, was

In Round 6 for President, New York's vote was as follows: Chase Oliver (24), Michael Rectenwald (10), a write-in for Courtney Love (1), and NOTA (4). Nationally, a majority of votes that normally went to Mike ter Maat shifted primarily to Chase Oliver, who now led Rectenwald 423-382. Oliver had 49.53% of the vote!

For Round 7, New York voted as follows: Chase Oliver (26), a write-in for Robert F. Kennedy, Jr. (1), a write-in for Glenn Danzig (1), and NOTA (7). Finally, at 10:11 p.m., more than 4 and a half hours after the scheduled adjournment, we finally had a Presidential nominee: Chase Oliver!

But, the night was far from over. We still had Members-At-Large of the LNC and the Vice Presidential nomination.

For the At-Large election, among the candidates were former LPNY Chair Tony D'Orazio and current Orange County, New York Vice Chair Pietro Geraci.

The At-Large vote in New York was as follows: Tony D'Orazio (18), Steven Nekheila (15), Travis Bost (13), Pietro Geraci (13), Mimi Robson (11), Andrew Watkins (11), Valerie Sarwark (9), Kathy Yaniscavich (9), Robert Vinson (8), Jim Turney (8), Josh Hlavka (6), Beth Vest (6), Heidi Alejandro Smith (5), Chris Thrasher (5), Jessi Cowart (4), Evan McMahon (4), Drew Heaton (4), Richard Longstreth (3), Hannah Goodman (3), Doug Craig (3), Eric Parker (2), Kevin Kahn (1), and NOTA (1). Special thanks for Pietro Geraci for assisting me with this tally.

The results for this nationally came just before midnight, with the following elected At-Large to the LNC: Andrew Watkins, Travis Bost, Kathy Yenisevich, Robert Vinson, and Steven Nekhalia.

Going into Monday, May 27, we had the Vice-Presidential nomination speeches. Mike ter Maat was the only former Presidential candidate to join the Vice-Presidential nomination race. New York's Round 1 results were as follows: Mike ter Maat (16), Clint Russell (6), Larry Sharpe (1), and Kristin Alexander (1). No candidate received a majority.

Going into Round 2, New York's results were as follows: Mike ter Maat (18) and Clint Russell (6). New York matched the National result, with Mike ter Maat winning the nomination for Vice President!

It was around 1 a.m. when the convention finally adjourned.

HELP US GET A3312 PASSED

This bill, if passed would lower the ballot access thresholds back to the previous standards: the number of votes needed to get ballot access to 50,000 (from 130,000 or 2%), and lower the petition signature requirement for a statewide office to 15,000 (from 45,000). Contact your representatives in the New York State Legislature and ask them to this bill! Contact Legislative Affairs Director Rich Purtell at rpurtell@lpny.org to get involved with pushing this bill.

STATE PETITIONS FILED, DECLARED INVALID

by Andrew Kolstee
LPNY Chair

The Libertarian Party of New York's 2024 petitioning drive ended on May 28, 2024.

Larry Sharpe stood in as the Presidential candidate and was replaced with Chase Oliver after the convention while Rich Purtell stood in as the Vice Presidential candidate and was replaced by Mike ter Maat after the convention.

After the National Convention, I brought the petitions I collected in Washington, D.C. and travelled to Albany for the filing. I retrieved our pile of petitions from our Statewide Collector, Steve Healey. Special thanks to Steve for collecting them!

On Tuesday, May 28, the petitions were sorted and bound into 8 volumes. Special thanks to Mark Braiman, Evan Lebrecht, and my parents, Gregg and Amy Kolstee, for assisting.

I took the petitions to the New York State Board of Elections in the afternoon. Special thanks to Gary Donongan for assisting with the filing.

Unfortunately, the New York State Board of Elections staff declared our petition invalid after a prima facie review.

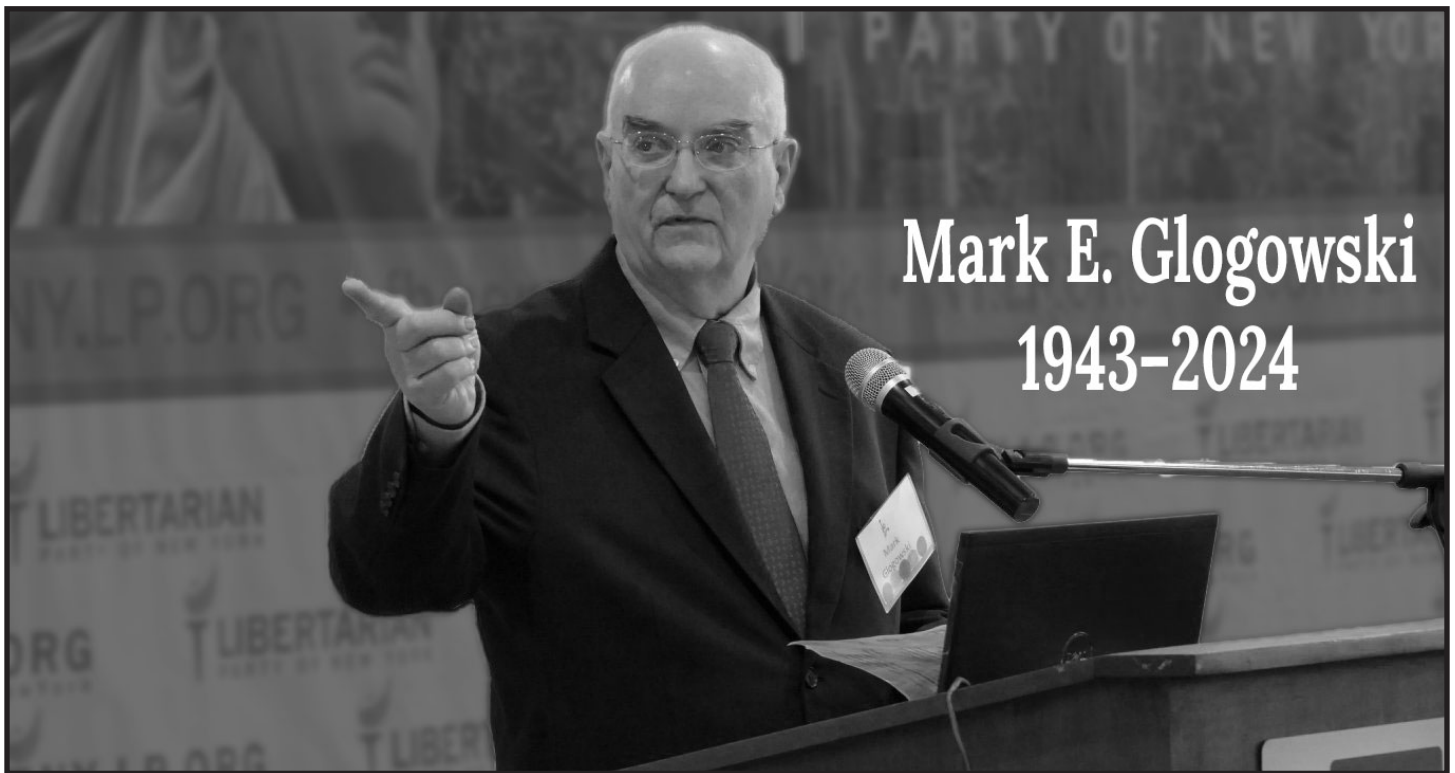

On June 9, I attended the staff hearing, with support from Mark Braiman, Justin Carman, and Angela McArdle, who were also in attendance, and I read a statement. The Commissioners held their meeting on June 11 and officially invalidated our petition.

Our petition was not the only one declared invalid due to insufficient signatures. The Green Party's petition was also declared invalid, despite Jill Stein's efforts to speak to the commissioners at their meeting. Independent candidates Cornel West and Shiva Ayyadurai also had their petitions declared invalid.

The Libertarian Party also had downballot candidates, all of whom were also declared invalid: Brandon Williams (U.S. Congress 22), Evan Lebrecht (Assembly District 107), Miriam Osario (Assembly District 124), Mark Braiman (Assembly District 127), and Wendi Szabo (Assembly District 144).

The fight is far from over—whether there are legal routes or we launch a write-in campaign!

LPNY MOURNS LOSS OF FORMER STATE CHAIR MARK GLOGOWSKI

Mark E. Glogowski
1943–2024

by Andrew Kolstee
LPNY Chair

The Libertarian Party of New York is saddened to announce the passing of Dr. Mark E. Glogowski on Sunday, June 9, 2024 at the age of 80. Dr. Glogowski served as State Chair from 2015 to 2018.

He was born on July 30, 1943 in Rochester, New York. He graduated from Spencerport Central High School and then went on to attend the University of Rochester where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry (1967) and then attended Rochester Institute of Technology where he earned his Master of Science degree in Chemistry (1972). He then attended the University of Arizona in Tucson where he received his PhD degree in Chemistry (1976).

Dr. Glogowski first served on the LPNY State Committee as a Member-At-Large from 2012 to 2013. In 2015, he ran for State Chair and was ultimately elected to three terms, serving until 2018. He was New York's Delegation Chair to the 2016 National Convention in Orlando and the 2018 National Convention in New Orleans. He went on to serve as a member of the State Committee from 2019 to 2023. He also served on several committees, including Strategic Planning, Rules (2018-2023), Platform (in which he chaired at one time), and the State-wide Candidate Search Committee (2022).

Dr. Glogowski ran for New York State Assembly in District 139 in 2012, 2014, 2018, and 2020. He was a dedicated petitioner, and notably in 2018, he collected 2,035 signatures, more than any other volunteer. This helped the LPNY in its historic election cycle to get Larry Sharpe on the ballot, which ultimately led to ballot access for the LPNY for the first time in its history.

He was the author of the 2011 book The Political Primer: Fundamentals of Politics, in which he followed up with a two-part sequel The Political Primer: The Story of Jake. In 2021, he authored To Cross-Endorse or Not Cross-Endorse? He has also authored several articles.

His obituary noted, "throughout his life he was involved in many social groups including Toastmasters and the Knights of Columbus. Mark was involved with various political groups over the years, most recently the NYS Libertarian Party, educating people on the importance of their vote and the political system. Mark enjoyed fishing, political discussions and spending time with family.”

Many Libertarians have left condolences and comments, and this is a summary of everything that was said: Mark was more than just a political figure; he was a mentor, friend, and father figure to many within the party. He was known for his principles, generosity, and understanding nature. He lived his ideals and worked hard to ensure others could do the same. Mark was principled and determined, yet always kind and compassionate, never uttering an unkind word or showing aggression. His integrity and commitment to liberty inspired many. He was often described as a man of great honor and an asset to the liberty movement. Mark’s intellect and friendliness left a lasting impact on those who knew him. He was a better man than most, always kind in the face of criticism and committed to his principles. His warmth and loyalty were cherished by his colleagues and friends.

REMEMBERING PETITIONER DARRYL BONNER

Collected Tens of Thousands of Signatures for the LPNY Over the Years

Darryl B. Bonner
1964–2024

by Mark Axinn
JD1 Representative
LPNY Chair (2010-2015)

The Libertarian Party lost one of its most dedicated and consistent workers when Darryl Bonner of Pennsylvania passed away suddenly last month at age 59.

Darryl’s efforts as a paid petitioner were unsurpassed. He was personally responsible for tens of thousands of signatures to help place Warren Redlich, Gary Johnson, Michael McDermott, Larry Sharpe and so many others on the ballot in New York.

He often spent countless hours petitioning in front of the Pathmark on 125th Street in Harlem, or in Coney Island, or in Queens, Syracuse and Albany. Darryl was truly indefatigable in his efforts for many years for us.

On the downside, no matter how hard I tried I could not convince him to root against the Philadelphia Phillies. While he was a great fan of New York, Darryl loved his hometown for its cheesesteaks and so much more.

The LPNY mourns his passing.
