It has come to our attention that you are a registered Republican. Records indicate that you also participated in the May 17th, 2022 primaries with a Republican ballot. Registered Republicans are not considered a bylaw sustaining member per bylaw §Article III Section II* and §Article VII Section 1. Nor do our records indicate that you are a dues paying member of the Libertarian Party of Idaho. As such your attempt to be an officer within the Libertarian Party of Ada County, as well as any efforts to participate in county party elections as a voting delegate, are null and void.

We hereby demand that you immediately cease the use of any title or authority related to that of a county officer, and that you desist from any future voting privileges. Any further attempts to act as a county officer or bylaw sustaining member of the Libertarian Party of Idaho will result in the board taking further action against you.

The enclosed letter has been provided to the Ada County Elections office as well as the Republican Party of Ada County.

With Liberty,

Jennifer Imhoff | Chair
