Caryn Ann,

It might still be cold in your neck of the woods, but spring is in the air as America's Pastime returns! Pitchers and catchers have reported to Spring Training facilities in Florida and Arizona ahead of the 2024 MLB season.

To help us think of the warmer days ahead filled with baseball and freedom, we are putting forth a simple challenge:

1. Think of your favorite baseball player and their jersey number.
- 2. Donate that amount to the Libertarian Party today.
3. Let us know who you're rooting for this year by tagging us on X @LPNational.

Unfortunately, the cost of a day at the ballpark continues to climb thanks to inflation. You don't pay what your grandparents used to for a beer and a hot dog. In fact, a ticket, a beer, and a hot dog in most markets could run you more than the $77 Babe Ruth made per game in 1919.

We think it's time to end the inflationary policies that are pricing us out of baseball and everything else. That can only be accomplished by electing Libertarians who can return us to economic sanity, and eventually, affordable trips to the ballpark.

Help us accomplish that goal with a donation in the amount of your favorite player's jersey number today. Big or small, your donation is a commitment to economic sanity and a return to affordable baseball!

Donate Your Favorite Player's Number Today!

Don't forget to let us know who you're rooting for this season on X to help spread the word!
