Dear Caryn Ann,

We asked you on Friday to help us honor some great libertarians. We got about 20 nominations, but WE WANT MORE!

The following awards will be presented during the 2020 LP National Convention:

Thomas Jefferson Leadership Award — presented to the LP member whose achievements demonstrate outstanding leadership, impeccable character, and dedication to the principles and goals of the party.

Patrick Henry Candidate Award — presented to the LP member who has been a very effective candidate for public office at the state or federal level, while communicating Libertarian ideas, principles, and values. Nominees can be candidates in 2018 and thereafter.

Benjamin Franklin Candidate Award — presented to the LP member who has been a very effective candidate for public office at the local level, while communicating Libertarian ideas, principles, and values. Nominees can be candidates in 2018 and thereafter.

Thomas Paine Communication Award — presented to the LP member who has been an outstanding communicator of Libertarian ideas, principles, and values through written, published, or spoken communications.

Samuel Adams Activism Award — presented to the LP member who has been a very effective activist by building party membership, organizing community outreach, or communicating Libertarian principles.

Hall of Liberty — The Hall of Liberty, established in 2012, honors lifetime or significant achievement that has made a lasting impact on the Libertarian Party and/or libertarian movement. Induction into the Hall of Liberty requires a unanimous vote of the Awards Committee. (At most three people can be inducted at the national convention.)
