Subject: [judicial] Caryn Ann Harlos' appeal

It seems like the Libertarian Party is becoming just as raciest, sexist and biased as the two major political parties. Now the LNC is attempting to re

But I am also familiar with this type of action in my own state party of North Dakota. And incidentally, I also appealed to the Judicial Committee so

In my case, I am the most popular Libertarian statewide candidate in North Dakota. Still, the State Party, without even giving me notice or due proc offended some members of the state party by occasionally sending them out emails while I was the State Chairman. But of course, the real reaso

Anyway, while I am still a life time member of the National Libertarian Party, I am effectively barred from participating in National Conventions bec

So much for a Libertarian Party that is open to all and worships self government and freedom of political expression.

I would therefor encourage the Judicial Committee to oppose these political witch hunts within the Libertarian Party and to support Caryn Halos ap
