   c. Only Board Members, Convention Committee Members, Convention Officials, and designated volunteers shall sit at or stand at, around, or behind the tables at the front of the delegate seating area.
   d. No person shall disturb materials placed on a delegate seat, except for the delegate occupying the seat.
   e. No delegate shall speak except upon recognition by the Convention Chair at a designated floor microphone.

2. Conduct During Business Proceedings
   a. The Convention Chair shall regulate the proceedings at all times so as not to outpace the Recording Secretary or Projectionist.
   b. No delegate shall speak except upon recognition by the Convention Chair when standing at a designated floor microphone.
   c. No delegate shall speak in debate more than once on the same question on the same day, or longer than one (1) minute, without permission of the Convention granted by a simple majority vote without debate.
   d. The maker of a main motion (including Committees) shall have the right to speak for no longer than two (2) minutes even after debate is closed.

3. Parliamentary Authority
   a. The rules contained within Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised as determined by the Bylaws shall govern the Convention in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the Constitution and Bylaws of the Party, these Convention Rules, and any Special Rules of Order the Convention may adopt.

4. Organization of the Convention
   a. The State Chair shall serve as the Convention Chair and, immediately upon concluding the official Call to Order, shall appoint three (3) delegates to the Resolutions Committee. Each member of the Resolutions Committee shall be a member of either the state Party or the national Party for at least the past three (3) years. The Convention, upon objection by at least three (3) delegates, may override any appointment by majority vote.
   b. The Resolutions Committee shall also serve as the Convention Judicial Committee.
   c. The Chair shall appoint other Convention Officials which shall include Recording Secretary, Parliamentarian, Projectionist, Audio Technician, Timekeeper, and Sergeant-At-Arms.
   d. The Convention Chair shall begin the Convention promptly at the time published in the Convention Agenda.
   e. The Credentials Committee shall report the number and the names of all Delegates registered as present with proper credentials. The list of the names of the Delegates shall be posted or projected in lieu of being read, and the Delegates shall be afforded time to verify the completeness and accuracy of the list, whereupon the report shall be adopted by majority vote. Quorum shall be fixed at the next whole number greater than exactly half of the number reported by the Credentials Committee. Delegates must check-in at the beginning of each day’s Business Session and shall be considered checked-out at the conclusion of each day’s Business Session. The Credentials Committee will provide an updated report at times indicated on any approved Convention Agenda. Such update shall only include changes from the initial daily reports.
f. The Chair of the Committee on Standing Rules shall report on these Rules of the Convention, which shall be adopted by two-thirds (2/3) vote.

g. The Convention Chair shall report on the agenda, which shall be adopted by majority vote. After adoption, the Agenda may only be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote.

5. Party Office Nominations and Balloting

a. The Convention Chair shall announce which Party Offices are open for election in the order in which they appear in the Party Constitution, Article V, Section 1, and elections shall take place in that order.

b. For each open Party Office, pursuant to the agenda, the Convention Chair will ask for nominations after which nominating speeches will be held in the order in which the candidates were nominated. A nominating speech for “None of the Above” may be offered for any Party Office. The total duration of candidate and nominating speeches for each candidate shall be no longer than five (5) minutes. The candidate may select delegates to give nominating speeches or allow an open floor. Candidates are encouraged to allot some of their time to speak on their own behalf.

c. For each Party Office in which there is a candidate, four (4) minutes will be allotted after any nominating speeches for vetting by the delegates.

d. Voting for Party Offices shall be conducted via approval voting conducted by standing counted vote or by written ballot. “None of the Above” will always be included as an option.

e. Unless otherwise specified by the Bylaws, national convention committee representative and ranked alternate appointments shall be made by ranked-choice voting. “None of the Above” will always be included as an option.

6. Reports

a. All reports and other material for the permanent record or printed proceedings shall be in an acceptable, commonly-used electronic format and shall be sent to the Projectionist and the Recording Secretary prior to presentation.

b. Board reports, including questions from the delegates, shall be limited to four (4) minutes for each Office.

c. Full reading of the entire main motion for Constitution and Bylaws Report proposals and Platform Report plank proposals just prior to final vote shall only be made by delegate request, in the interest of time.

d. The Chairs (or designees thereof) of the Platform Committee and the Bylaws and Rules Committee shall report each recommendation of the Committee to the Convention separately and shall have two (2) minutes to explain the intent or purpose of the proposed amendment(s). The Convention Chair shall open each recommendation to discussion without amendment from the floor. Each recommendation shall be considered and adopted separately, with a maximum of five (5) minutes discussion on any recommendation. After the discussion, the Convention Chair shall bring the recommendation to a vote. If the recommendation fails, the Convention Chair shall open the recommendation to amendment for an additional five (5) minutes.

e. Recommendations for which there are minority report(s) shall be debated and voted upon in the following manner:

i. If there is only one minority report, then spokespersons for both positions shall each have two (2) minutes to present their views, with the majority position going first. The Convention Chair shall then open consideration of both positions for five (5) minutes, during which time any delegates may express their views without offering amendments. After the five (5) minutes have passed, there will be a vote on which of the two reports shall be considered for purposes of adopting a recommendation in accordance with Section 6-d.

ii. If there is more than one minority report, the one with the most co-signatures (if there are equal numbers of signatures, the Committee Chair shall designate the priority) will be handled first as described below.

1. Spokespersons for the first two minority positions shall each have two (2) minutes to present their views.

2. The Convention Chair shall then open consideration of both positions for five (5) minutes, during which time any delegates may express their views without offering amendments. After the five (5) minutes have passed, there will be a vote on which of the two minority reports shall be considered for purposes of adopting a recommendation or to be considered against any additional minority reports until there is only one report remaining. Once there is only one minority report remaining, it will then be considered against the majority report for purposes of adopting a recommendation in accordance with Section 6-d.

7. Resolutions
   a. A resolution offered by an individual Delegate shall be in an acceptable electronic format or legibly printed and signed by the maker and the seconder and shall be sent directly to the table of the Resolutions Committee.
   b. Resolutions shall be handled by the Resolutions Committee as follows:
      i. All resolutions, except those proposed by the Board of Directors, or by committees, shall be presented by the Board or proposing committee directly to the delegates.
      ii. All other resolutions, as well as any recommendations made in reports of officers or committees of the Convention that are not in the form of resolutions, shall be referred without debate to the Resolutions Committee.
      iii. For all resolutions or recommendations, amendments may be offered verbally, but the Chair or the delegates may refer them to the Resolutions Committee if they become overly involved.
      iv. Each delegate who offers a resolution shall be given an opportunity to explain it to the Resolutions Committee.
      v. The Resolutions Committee shall prepare suitable resolutions to carry into effect recommendations referred to it, and shall submit to the convention during the portion of the Agenda reserved for Resolutions (or earlier, if at the Committee’s discretion, the Resolution should be handled with other pending business), with the Committee’s own recommendation as to appropriate action. These and all other resolutions referred to the Committee, except questions which the Committee by a vote of two thirds (2/3) of its members may decide not to report.
      vi. The convention by a majority vote may suspend this Rule and may immediately consider a question, or may order the Resolutions Committee to report a question at a certain time, even if the Committee has voted not to report it.

8. Notices for Announcements
   a. Notices for announcement to the convention shall be in an acceptable electronic format or legibly printed and signed by the person (or a proper representative of the persons) under whose authority the announcement is issued, and shall be sent to the desk of the Recording Secretary.

9. Minutes
   a. Draft minutes will be posted to the Party website within sixty (60) days of adjournment of the Convention for Member comment. Convention Minutes shall be approved by the Board within ninety (90) days of Convention.

10. Challenges to Proposals or Resolutions
    a. Challenges of any adopted proposals or resolutions (including any actions of the Board in the time since the last Convention) believed by ten (10) delegates to be in conflict with the Statement of Principles shall be referred in writing, during the Convention, to the Convention Judicial Committee by the delegates requesting action for consideration. The challenge shall specify in what manner the item(s) is believed to be in conflict. The Convention Judicial Committee shall consider the challenge, decide whether the Statement of Principles is conformed to and report their findings and reasons to the Convention. If the challenge is upheld by the Convention Judicial Committee, the proposal or resolution will be declared null and void but can be reinstated by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of the Convention.

In Memoriam: Ralph Shelnover

October 30, 1950 – February 12, 2019

On February 12th, 2019, the Libertarian Party of Boulder County lost their Chair, Ralph Shelnover, as he took his life in angst. If it were not for Ralph, the growth of Liberty in Boulder County would be flat and nearly non-existent. Here are a few things that our fellow libertarians had to say in remorse:

"Ralph worked to advance liberty literally Every Week...for Many years... He maintained Thursday lunch as a reliable place for civil dialogue on the interaction of Libertarian ideas and the real world. Ralph exposed many thousands to Libertarian ideas and brought in guest speakers that often challenged conventional Libertarian thinking. He will be sorely missed." - Liberty Bill

"Ralph loved an educational and conversational setting. He set a very high bar with his Thursday Libertarian Party of Boulder County lunches, which had a constantly varying speaker list on myriad topics. He asked speakers who would please the Libertarian group and other speakers who were sure to cause turmoil. He was gracious to all of them. He even fostered conversations at these lunches about my favorite topic, which he loved also: how to increase election integrity. His personal history led him to value fair elections as the foundation of democracy. He gave many hours working on increasing election integrity. He was a plaintiff in election-related lawsuits against Boulder County and even ran for county clerk and recorder, because his experience as a watcher and canvass board member caused him to want a more open accounting of how elections were handled in Boulder County. I will miss his advocacy, and his friendship even more." - Mary Eberle

"Ralph was my friend and I loved him. He was always kind to me and gracious. He worked tirelessly to make a more free country and he was an example to me of dedication." - Thomas Adam Peppers

"If it not for Ralph I wouldn’t be working tirelessly hours desperately trying to spread the message of freedom and liberty in Boulder County. Ralph was always kind and gracious to me and I am so saddened by this loss. His absence will be visible for an undetermined time to come. Rest in peace Ralph."

Chair – Wayne Harlos
This year has been a great year for the LPCO. We have implemented a business plan model for direction and accountability for the directors and, I believe that it has been, overall, a success. With a little revision, it will be better this year.

All of the affiliates have grown significantly and we’ve had three new development groups that are thriving, as well as two more that will be started with the State Parties help in the next months after convention. That was my goal when elected, to grow the party through grass root efforts and it is working.

We have also been successful in growing our communications efforts to the public by recruiting several talented writers and we are being published on a regular basis in several of the main periodicals in Colorado. Colorado still has to work on growing National Memberships, as the more National Members that we have from Colorado, the more delegates we will have at the National Convention. We were in the top ten states, when the delegates were allotted, but have slipped to eleventh. We need to put our efforts back into National Membership recruitment.

Our outreach efforts have been quite robust, not only in the State level, but on the local level from the affiliates as well. Last year there were only about 75 calls for more information, but this year, I have been getting 35-40 inquiries a month and that shows that the party is causing people to want to know more about us and what we stand for.

This upcoming year will be better yet, with more volunteers and activities to keep us all busy, but we need your help. The State board is made up of only eleven directors and they can’t get everything done without your help. Please feel free to reach out to me and I’ll put you to work.

It’s been a pleasure to serve with all the great volunteers this last year and I plan to continue our growth for the next year.

Vice Chair – Michele Poague

- With the help of Matthew DiGi and Kevin Gulbranson, I formatted, printed, and (snail) mailed the newsletter to 300 members with a personal message to each one.
- Posted on social media.

Regions – Steven Gallant

Of the 64 counties comprising Colorado, there are five active affiliates and approximately 20 county development groups.

County Affiliates:
- Arapahoe
- Boulder
- Delta
- Douglas
- El Paso.

Counties with development groups or active contacts:
- Adams
- Archuleta
- Clear Creek
- Custer
- Denver
- Dolores
- Elbert
- Fremont
- Garfield
- Jefferson
- Kit Carson
- Lake
- Mesa
- Park
- Phillips
- Pueblo
- Routt
- Teller
- Washington
- Yuma

Work is underway to recruit regional representatives, with one identified thus far.

An incomplete sample list of Facebook followers for certain affiliates and development groups:
- Boulder – 4460
- El Paso – 1700
- Douglas – 1200
- Arapahoe – 990
- Denver – 860
- Jefferson – 680

The February 19 Denver kickstart meeting was a success, with about 30 people in attendance and the election of new leadership. Kyle Furey, Josh Walen and Raymon Doane were elected chair, vice chair and treasurer respectively. They have created a website, in addition to their Facebook page.

The Jefferson County LP development group is holding regular meetings, has created new bylaws, and will be seeking affiliation.

The Mesa County development group is holding regular meetings in Grand Junction. Speakers at their events included the Grand Junction city manager, an independent candidate for city council, and an advocate for a tax increase to build a “community center”. The Mesa development group is promoting its meetings through Meetup, Facebook, phone calls, e-mails, and texts.

The Pueblo County development group will hold its first meeting May 21, with meetings scheduled for the following months.

I continue to process volunteers, sending their information to the appropriate county LP leaders.

Campaigns – Kim Tavendale

Kim Tavendale stepped in to take over from the former Campaigns Director who resigned midway through the year.

2018 Elections:
The November 2018 mid-term elections returned a somewhat disappointing result for Libertarians, but reflected the political climate in Colorado as a referendum on national politics. We had 27 candidates run as Libertarians in state House and Senate, and US Congressional seats, and our state party Chair, Wayne Harlos, ran in a local election.

Two of our candidates did have excellent results, with John Pickerill obtaining 26% of the vote for State Senate District 3, and Wayne achieving 24% in his Castle Rock City Council race.

Campaigns Committee:
After the election, the Campaigns Director instituted a Campaigns Committee, to assist candidates and the LPCO to run more candidates and more successful campaigns. The Campaigns Committee held its first meeting in person in Thornton Colorado at 3pm on Sunday 18th November 2018. Subsequent meetings have been held by Zoom, an online meeting app, to ensure that Committee members and LPCO members all around Colorado can participate or attend virtually, removing a barrier to attendance.

This year, the focus of the Campaigns Director and the Committee is on having more candidates run in non-partisan local elections and for local boards and committees. The Committee is dedicated to finding quality candidates and providing as much information and supporting candidates with as much advice as possible.

It has been my honour to serve the members of the Libertarian Party of Colorado as a member of the Board and the Campaigns Committee.

Outreach – Kevin Gulbranson

Colorado Libertarian Outreach hit the ground running after our 2018 LPCO State Convention. One of the primary responsibilities that I was charged with as Outreach Director was to plan, organize and work as many Outreach Events as possible throughout the year. Following is a partial list of those Events that I have been involved in throughout the past year.

- 4/15/18 Libertarian Party of Douglas County Tas Protest Sign Wave
- 4/20/18 420 LNC Meet & Greet Fundraiser at our home

- 6/2-3/18 People’s Fair – Denver’s Civic Center Park
- 6/16-17/18 PrideFest – Denver’s Civic Center Park
- 6/30-7/3/18 LNC National Convention – New Orleans, LA
- 7/26-29/18 Arapahoe County Fair – Aurora

- 3/2/19 LPCO Phone Bank Fundraiser at our home
- 4/6/19 LPCO Phone Bank Fundraiser at our home
- 4/13/19 LP Tax Protest Sign Wave – Douglas and Arapahoe Counties

In addition to the events listed above, I have attended local Affiliate and Development Group meetings for Arapahoe County (where I serve as a Board Member), Denver County, Jefferson County, Boulder County, Douglas County and El Paso County.

I am a member of the LPCO Legislative Committee and LPCO Campaigns Committee and participant/observer in the Constitution & Bylaws Committee and Convention Committee.

I post on behalf of the LPCO on social media specifically in support of Outreach events and solicitation of volunteers. I was a candidate for State House and worked in support of LP candidates in the 2018 Election cycle. I helped to compile, label and mail the first LPCO Newsletter in years.

The LPCO is already registered and committed to the following upcoming events and will be looking for volunteers to help the new Outreach Director.

- 5/4-5/19 Denver’s Cinco de Mayo Festival – Denver’s Civic Center Park
- 6/15-16/19 PrideFest – Denver’s Civic Center Park

I want to offer a word of thanks and acknowledgement to the many volunteers who participated in the set-up, tear-down, and staffing of our events throughout the course of the year. We could not possibly attend these events throughout the year and reach so many Coloradans with the message and hope of Individual Liberty without your support and sacrifice of time. I hope and trust that you will continue this same level of support for my successor! I intend to participate in as many future Outreach events as possible and will bring Doritos!!

A special thank you and acknowledgement goes to my life partner, best friend, and love of my life, Michele Poague. Without her support and sacrifice I would not have been able to do any of this. There will be an expanded version of this report available online at LPColorado.org complete with color photos!

In addition to the duties of my office, I worked on a number of liberty actions supported by the Colorado Libertarian Party.

Ballot Initiative
I and Natalie Menten, with help from some generous donors, were able to get nearly 100,000 signatures on a petition to put the FairTax initiative on the November ballot. We ran a crew of over 30 individuals and used a petitioning company. Unfortunately, after spending nearly $50,000 we realized we didn’t have time to collect the remaining required signatures. We shut down the FairTax petition drive at the end of May.

Jefferson County Development Group
Ross Klopf, Steve Gallant and myself set up a Restart Jeffco event in the Fall. This attracted nearly 40 people. From this, and regular calling, we have been able to sustain meetings of the reconstituted Jefferson County Development Group.

Various Liberty Activities
I worked to stop a Lakewood TABOR evisceration ballot measure. Sadly this partly illegal initiative passed.

I filed several blue book arguments against various ballot initiatives. I was successful in stopping a tax increase for my neighborhood.
Libertarian Party of Colorado – 2019 State Convention
Board Reports

Legislative – Michael Stapleton
As of this report we are 85 days into the 120 days into the 1st Regular Session of the 72nd Colorado General Assembly. To date 281 pieces of Legislation have been introduced in the House and 219 have introduced in the Senate. Of those introduced in the House 24 have been signed into law by the Governor and 35 in the Senate.

This session has been consumed with many controversial pieces of legislation including HB19-1177 Extreme Risk Protection Orders/Red Flag. With this specific piece of legislation, it created a great opportunity to work with an Issues group Rally for Our Rights to push back against this legislation that will lead to firearms confiscation. Even though the legislation passed, Libertarian Party activists joined with me in a big way to testify in both the House and Senate Committees with opposition to this legislation. We also attended town halls, called and e-mailed the legislators, and participated in daily activism opportunities for over a month, in a way I’ve never seen before, since serving almost 3 terms as Legislative Director for the Libertarian Party of Colorado.

Treasurer – John Hjersman

I took over as fundraising director in January of this year because of the request of several board members.

We held two fundraising events and a matching challenge.

There were donations of over $10,000 some of which were due to fundraising efforts in 2019.

Nothing further to report for this month.

Respectfully submitted,
Wayne Harlos, Michele Pogue, Steven Gallant, Kim Tavendale, Kevin Gulbranson, Lance Cayko, Michael Spalding, Michael Stapleton, John Hjersman, Victoria Reynolds

The Libertarian Party of Colorado is grateful for all our wonderful presenters! We’re glad they’re here to share their expertise with our Convention attendees.

An 8th generation Tennessean, Tom Arnold is the end result of frontiersmen who defied the King’s edict, and crossed the Appalachians in search of land and freedom. Mr. Arnold is a philosopher, poet, political operative, agrarian, bibliophile, and professional ditch digger, preferring the world of ideas to the following after men. Born into a family of farmers and construction workers, he diverged and immersed himself in books and learning. Ultimately, he returned home and took up working in the family construction company. His first political campaign was in 1964 at age 7 – he pedaled his bike over his Nashville neighborhood, handing out 500 pencils and 500 buttons for Barry Goldwater. From that point on he was hooked.

At present Tom lives on a small farm in Flynn’s Lick, Tennessee, in a 500 sq ft house he shares with a demented Sheltie dog. He is a past Chair of the LPTN, and he’s known in all Libertarian circles as Liberty Claus. He’s also probably one of the few Boomers that doesn’t type in all caps and actually listens to what young people have to say. His goal is liberty in his lifetime. At 61, he plans on living to 102.

Frank Atwood officially became a Libertarian in mid 1990, even though he had been a polite libertarian milquetoast Republican advocating gun rights and anti-prohibition drug policies all his life. After retiring and moving to Colorado in 2000, he became a vigorous political activist.

He has run for State House once, and CD 1 twice. He participated in the repeal of the Littleton grocery tax and other community efforts. He has always been concerned that third parties sabotage their philosophical allies, and with how to resolve that conundrum. Atwood served on the Arapahoe County Liquor board for a dozen years and recently applied to be appointed to Littleton’s Election Commission. He was a founding member of, and still active with, Littleton’s Sunshine Advocates – a community watchdog group practicing transparency, accountability and consequences for Littleton’s elected leadership. In 2008 he was introduced to Approval Voting and has been an advocate ever since, being the Approval Voting Party presidential candidate in 2016.

Coby Cochran is the Founder and CEO of UnCanna, a Veteran owned and operated hemp phytocannabinoid (CBD) advocacy, education, and sales company operating out of Denver, Colorado. UnCanna is vertically integrated, from seed to sale, with true industry leaders, providing the highest quality products on the market, locally grown and extracted in Colorado, while remaining a leading, trusted voice of advocacy in the Veteran community.

Coby is an Army Ranger who served for the last decade in the light infantry, airborne, and special operations communities. He has served throughout numerous combat deployments to Afghanistan, in support of several campaigns throughout the Global War on Terror. Over the last decade he has lost countless friends to suicide, to include his own father. He has served as an advocate in his community for years, and has given tremendous support to numerous Veteran foundations.

Coby founded UnCanna after experiencing life changing results, using natural alternatives in lieu of the wall of prescriptions provided to him in service that almost cost him his life. He shoulders a lifetime of trauma, as many of his colleagues do, but is leading by example, using positive modalities that lead to a better quality of life. He is so passionate about the positive effects of CBD that he has launched a political advocacy campaign to reverse the Department of Defense ban on CBD, something he feels his team can change with education, community support, and political action. According to Coby, he has numerous friends who are on the edge and their only options are pills or no pills, combined with ineffective treatment options. He is fighting for his buddies still serving, and the thousands of testimonials show he has the Veteran community’s support, and that they too believe in his products and mission.

In his free time, Coby is an avid enduro motocross racer, backcountry splitboarder, and rockclimber when he is not spending time with his wife, Melanie and two year old son, Leo. Throughout service, he has passed the military’s most difficult selection and has competed in the top physical competitions, earning numerous accolades. He knows performance and recovery inside and out, and promotes advocacy and education over sales. UnCanna is one of few brands in this space doing things the right way, and they have a mission that is second to none with the experience to back it all.

You can read more about UnCanna, their products, standards, and processes, or learn more about CBD in general on their website. Search @uncanna on most social media platforms and join the team. Your support directly contributes to positive change within the Veteran, Federal, LEO, and Outdoor communities.

Dr. Bill Durland, a retired civil rights attorney, state legislator, and professor of Philosophy, History and Government, is old enough to remember tyrants - Hitler and Mussolini - and was assaulted by a bully who snatched his elementary school lunch box. Madison wrote: “If men were angels no government would be necessary. … No man is to be a judge in his own cause.” We are not alone but interdependent.

Domina Elle is a Libertarian, and an erotic service provider of 20 years. She is a member of the Erotic Service Provider Union, and a board member of the Erotic Service Provider Legal Education and Research Project. Ms Elle has been an erotic labor activist since 2010, and she is an expert witness on BDSM/fetishism.

Marc Goddard was born in Portland Oregon and spent his formative years there, becoming politically active at 16 years old. Among his early accomplishments were organizing a fight against using the Willamette river as drinking water, and running a campaign for Mayor of Portland. This candidate was only 19 (the youngest mayoral candidate in the country at the time), and ended up getting 2nd out of 16 candidates. After earning his Associates degree in Portland, Marc earned his Bachelor’s degree in political science and philosophy from Marymount University in Arlington, VA.

In 2006, Marc moved to Denver, Colorado and became immediately involved with the LPCO. That year, he ran the Gubernatorial campaign for candidate Dawn Winkler, which unlocked much growth for the LPCO, even getting Libertarians included in the prestigious Club 20 debates for the first time ever. Also in 2006, Marc presided as Parliamentarian over the LPCO state convention. Shortly thereafter, Marc became a NAP Parliamentarian, and has since presided as Parliamentarian over multiple Party conventions. The National Party recognized him for his efforts assisting the 2008 National convention held in Denver Colorado.

In 2010, he ran for State House in District 4, where he garnered 5% of the vote – a record for any Libertarian in that district. He also assisted in the campaign for Jeff Schitter for Congress, and in 2014, he was campaign manager for David Williams, candidate for Attorney General of Colorado – a campaign that yielded an impressive total of over 120,000 votes.

Marc now resides in Colorado Springs. He was Parliamentarian and hosted the Presidential debate for the 2016 LPCO convention, which was held in that city. He is back this year to offer his Parliamentarian services once again.
Jacob G. Hornberger is founder and president of The Future of Freedom Foundation. He was born and raised in Laredo, Texas, and received his B.A. in economics from Virginia Military Institute and his law degree from the University of Texas. He was a trial attorney for twelve years in Texas. He also was an adjunct professor at the University of Dallas, where he taught law and economics.

In 1987, Mr. Hornberger left the practice of law to become director of programs at the Foundation for Economic Education. He has advanced freedom and free markets on talk-radio stations all across the country as well as on Fox News’ Neil Cavuto and Greta van Susteren shows and he appeared as a regular commentator on Judge Andrew Napolitano’s show Freedom Watch.

Blake Huber has had an interest in politics all of his adult life. In high school he used to argue voluntaryist principles. He has been a state chair of the Libertarian Party, and served on the Libertarian Party National Committee. He’s been active in political campaigns since he was 17 years old.

Most recently, Blake has become interested in election methods after the elections that involved Ross Perot and, more recently, Ralph Nader. Currently, Blake is working to promote an alternative voting method called Approval Voting. He feels that people have a better ability to express themselves at the ballot box if they’re not limited to one single choice – a choice he calls VFOO (vote for one and only one). Blake has considered running for political office, but he feels his run might split the vote with an intellectual ally, allowing the opposing/horrible candidate to win.
Robin Koerner (www.RobinKoerner.com) is a member of the Faculty Network of the Foundation of Economic Education, who holds graduate degrees in both Physics and the Philosophy of Science from the University of Cambridge (U.K.).

He founded WatchingAmerica.com, an organization of over 100 volunteers that translates and posts in English views about the USA from all over the world.

However, Robin may be best known for having coined the term "Blue Republican" to refer to liberals and independents who joined the GOP to support Ron Paul's bid for the presidency in 2012 (and, in so doing, launching the largest coalition that existed for that candidate).

Robin's current work as the author of the book If You Can Keep It and as an instructor and a consultant in political psychology, communication and branding is focused on winning supporters for liberty, rather than just arguments. As he often says, you can't change minds unless you understand how minds are made up.

Thomas Krannawitter founded Upward Business Academy (UBA) for three reasons:

1. It is beautiful to behold human beings creating new wealth, flourishing, and prospering.
2. Human flourishing is inseparable from the entrepreneurial spirit and the entrepreneurial spirit is the core of the very idea of business.
3. Helping businesses strengthen their employee cultures results in more people creating new wealth, flourishing, and prospering.

Starting a business is a great risk. Running a business is a great risk. Yet, many employees arrive at work with an attitude of entitlement, often demanding things they’ve not yet earned. They sometimes seem to understand little about the risk required by those who launched the business and the fact that they, themselves, the employees, get more by becoming more valuable to coworkers, customers, and the business owners.

Dr. Krannawitter has been studying these curious features of modern business culture and testing solutions for decades. He earned a Master’s degree and Ph.D. from the School of Politics & Economics at the Claremont Graduate University in California. With a focus on history and political economy, Dr. Krannawitter turned his research into a training platform that offers value for business owners, employees, and customers.

When employees are more productive and create more value, after all, everyone connected to the business wins. Owners. Coworkers. Individual employees. Customers. That’s the intrinsic beauty of wealth creation: It unites the many different interests of many different people.

Prior to launching UBA, Dr. Krannawitter taught at Claremont McKenna College, Hillsdale College, and George Mason University. He is one of the principal instructors for the Leadership Program of the Rockies, based in Colorado, and he frequently advises businesses and charitable organizations on communications, cultural development, and strategy. He is also the proprietor of Speakeasyideas.com, which provides ideas-based solutions to problems best discussed over drinks and cigars.

He is the author of numerous books, including his 2008 Vindicating Lincoln, which was featured by The History Book Club and endorsed by the United States Lincoln Bicentennial Commission. His more recent Crisis of Our House Divided: Talking Politics Without the Noise is a communications guide for citizens who increasingly mock rather than talk to one another.

History offers insightful, inspirational lessons regarding the possibilities and limits of human nature. No one is better at distilling and presenting those insights in ways that are valuable for improving business cultures than Dr. Thomas Krannawitter.
Daryl Kuiper is a long term resident of Colorado, having graduated from Widefield High School, then from the University of Colorado with a BA in Mathematics. He also graduated from the University of Nebraska with a MA in Mathematics. He taught at both the college and high school level, and served as a charter school administrator.

Mr. Kuiper had his own plumbing and heating business, and also was the Plumbing Inspector Supervisor for the State of Colorado. Now he spends his time researching mathematical, political, and philosophical topics and lecturing for the PILLAR Institute.

Dr. Paul Price is just a normal dude who wants to be left alone. He makes his living offering Chiropractic services in a decreasingly free market. He is old enough to remember the birth of the Health Information Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, which, he noticed, provided no accountability that was not already available from professional associations and traditional confidentiality practices, and it gave government officials much more access to patient information.

D Frank Robinson is one of the Co-founders of the Libertarian Party. He was Chair of the Constitution, Bylaws and Rules Committee at the founding convention in Denver in 1972, and principal author of the 7/8ths Statement of Principles rule. Mr. Robinson is a former member of the National LP Executive Committee, and current member of the National Judicial Committee.

Mr. Robinson resides in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, is the current Chair of the Oklahoma LP Judicial Committee, and a former OKLP candidate, in 1980, for the U. S. House of Representatives. In 2016 and 2018, he was denied ballot access as a Congressional candidate by the State of Oklahoma for refusing to pay candidate ballot access fees or submit petitions.

Now, at 76 years of age, Mr. Robinson is a Member of the Radical Caucus, and author of the forthcoming Slashing the Gordian Knot of Ballot Access Censorship and Monopoly. He has one son by a former marriage, and is single.

Arvin Vohra is a 2020 candidate for president, as well as the former Vice Chair of the Libertarian National Committee. He is also an internationally published author, the founder a purely free market educational company that accepts no government grants, and a frequent guest on various national and international media.

He is running for president to end the welfare state and abolish the income tax, and has pledged to pardon Edward Snowden, Ross Ulbricht, Julian Assange and all nonviolent drug “criminals” on his first day in office.

Political Satirist Tim Slagle is a twenty-five year veteran of the comedy club circuit, and he has performed in most of the 50 states, Canada, and Mexico. His edgy style has made him a cult hero, and a favorite of his peers. He wages a war against political correctness, and fights for Truth and Justice in a time when speaking your mind is a crime more heinous than treason.

He is a contributing editor to Liberty Magazine, and has had articles published by the American Legislative Exchange Council and currently writes for Big Hollywood on Breitbart.com. He performs at prestigious political functions and for major think-tanks nationwide. His Off-Broadway show, The Slagle/Naughton Report ran in Chicago concurrently with the 96 Democratic National Convention. Tim produced and starred in a pilot called the Mudslingers Ball, which ran on KSTP in Minneapolis, and came in No. 2 in its time slot. He also has appeared on MTV, Showtime, and C-Span.
Kryssi Wichers is the Political Director for Franklin County, the biggest county affiliate in Ohio. She’s also a member of the Libertarian Party of Ohio executive committee. She has worked on more than two dozen campaigns ranging from managing local-non partisan to marketing for Gubernatorial and Presidential campaigns. She ran for State Representative in Ohio in 2018 where she got the most traditional media coverage of any Libertarian candidate in the Midwest. Kryssi specializes in political media and marketing and is currently obtaining a MBA from Ohio State to take her skills to the next level. She is also a community activist and enjoys organizing direct actions such as park clean ups and tax day protests.

Resa Willis has been involved in the liberty movement since 2016. Her first major involvement was as a Senatorial District district representative in Texas. She served as state Membership Director, and became involved with Larry Sharpe as a social media volunteer. She quickly moved up to Deputy Director of Messaging for the campaign, with a team of dedicated social media gurus working alongside her. Larry Sharpe’s social media presence quickly outpaced Andrew Cuomo’s, the two-time incumbent governor of New York, and was second only to the Libertarian social media.

Vermin Supreme
Vermins supreme.com

Join us after Saturday night's events for a midnight showing of "Who is Vermin Supreme? An Outsider Odyssey" From Amazon.

Set in the wake of the Occupy Wall Street movement, "Who is Vermin Supreme?" follows oddball politician Vermin Supreme’s presidential campaign. As the Democrats and Republicans spend billions on advertising and rallies, Supreme takes to the streets to spread the word about his plans to enact mandatory toothbrushing laws, prepare for the zombie apocalypse, and provide a free pony for every American.

A second showing will be at 11:30am Sunday.

A Note from the LNC Secretary...

It has been announced! The theme for the 2020 national presidential nominating convention will be TANSTAAFL. During the LNC roundtable I will give you the history of what that means and its importance to the Party. The convention will take place in Austin Texas on May 21, 2020 - May 25, 2020. For more information visit: https://libertarianconvention.org

But of course many of you will want to know how to qualify to become a Colorado delegate. Please feel free to corner me at this convention, email me at secretary@lp.org, or call me at 561.523.2250, and I will be glad to help you understand the process.

Libertarian Party of Colorado – 2019 State Convention

Acknowledgements

From the Chair:

This year, as in past years, we have a couple of volunteers that have put in a tremendous amount of time to help the State Convention. Amy Lunde, for designing and setting up the printing of this program, and Beatriz Sutton, who is in charge of credentialing, are two who immediately spring to mind. Both of these ladies have put in countless hours, and here is my personal thanks. When you see them at Convention, please show your appreciation as well.

I would be remiss if I didn’t thank the Libertarian Party Radical Caucus and the Libertarian Party of Arapahoe County for sponsoring the State Chair and Vice Chair debate, respectively, on Saturday, and our great advertisers. Please support them as you can.

As always, gratitude goes to our presenters, who take time out of their weekend to share their knowledge with us; our Convention volunteers, who help things run smoothly; and all of YOU, for attending the Convention and helping shape the future of the Party!

In Liberty,
Wayne Harlos
