| E. | Recuero proposal 2.4 Personal Income and Government Finance and Spending The Libertarian Party calls for the repeal of the income tax, the abolishment of the Internal Revenue Service and all federal programs and services not required under the U.S. Constitution. All persons are entitled to keep the fruits of their labor. We call for the repeal of the income tax, the abolishment of the Internal Revenue Service and all federal programs and services not required under the U.S. Constitution. We oppose any legal requirements forcing employers to serve as tax collectors. All persons individuals are entitled to keep the fruits of their labor and to determine which mediums of exchange they will accept for their personal transactions. We support any initiative to reduce or abolish any tax, and oppose any increase on any | tax for any reason. To the extent possible, we advocate that all public services be funded or allowed to be provided in a voluntary manner.

The Chair will be asking Mr. Brown or another member to take the gavel on this proposal as there is one part the Chair wishes to debate freely. If it passes, the Chair will likely also pass the gavel at convention and argue a minority report. The Chair once relinquishing gavel intend on offering this substitute:

Since we believe that all persons are entitled to keep the fruits of their labor, we oppose all government activity which consists of the forcible collection of money or goods from individuals in violation of their individual rights and call for the eventual repeal of all taxation. To further that end, we call for the repeal of the income tax, the abolishment of the Internal Revenue Service and all federal programs and services not required under the U.S. Constitution. We oppose any legal requirements forcing employers to serve as tax collectors. We support any initiative to reduce or abolish any tax, and oppose any increase on any tax for any reason. To the extent possible, we advocate that all public services be funded or allowed to be provided in a voluntary manner.
