7. Motions and Votes

< AGENDA ITEM D >

Text of proposal 8(Main motion) as amended from previous committee meeting [Old Business]

The defense of the country requires that we have adequate intelligence to detect and to counter threats to domestic security. This requirement must not take priority over maintaining the civil liberties of our citizens. The Constitution and Bill of Rights shall not be suspended ~~even during time of war~~ or curtailed, whether based on circumstances of war, epidemic, natural disaster or emergency, or any other pretense. Intelligence agencies that legitimately seek to preserve the security of the nation must be subject to oversight and transparency. We oppose the government's use of secret classifications to keep from the public information that it should have, especially that which shows that the government has violated the law. We oppose the use of torture and other cruel and unusual punishments, without exception.

Shall the committee adopt the amended text as the main motion

Motion PASS 8-1-2 at 9:11pm (see vote Tally Ballot 2)

The main motion now reads as follows

The defense of the country requires that we have adequate intelligence to detect and to counter threats to domestic security. This requirement must not take priority over maintaining the civil liberties of our citizens. The Constitution and Bill of Rights shall not be suspended or curtailed, whether based on circumstances of war, epidemic, natural disaster or emergency, or any other pretense. Intelligence agencies that legitimately seek to preserve the security of the nation must be subject to oversight and transparency. We oppose the government's use of secret classifications to keep from the public information that it should have, especially that which shows that the government has violated the law. We oppose the use of torture and other cruel and unusual punishments, without exception.

Harlos introduces a substitute motion

The defense of the country requires that we have adequate intelligence to detect and to counter threats to domestic security. This requirement must not take priority over maintaining the civil liberties of our citizens. We hold that an individual's right of choice and attendant responsibility is absolute, and no real or imagined emergency (whether medical, environmental, military, or other) can be used as a pretext for expanding or concentrating government power, including the suspension or curtailing of the Constitution or Bill of Rights. ~~The Constitution and Bill of Rights shall not be suspended even during time of war.~~ Intelligence agencies that legitimately seek to preserve the security of the nation must be subject to oversight and transparency. We oppose the government's use of secret classifications to keep from the public information that it should have, especially that which shows that the government has violated the law. We oppose the use of torture and other cruel and unusual punishments, without exception.

The Chair instructs the committee, that we first perfect the language of the main motion and then the substitute, followed by a vote on whether to adopt the substitute or not

Brungardt moves the following amendment to the main motion

The defense of the country requires that we have adequate intelligence to detect and to counter threats to domestic security. This requirement must not take priority over maintaining the civil liberties of our citizens. The Constitution, ~~and~~ including the Bill of Rights, shall not be suspended or curtailed, whether based on circumstances of war, epidemic, natural disaster or emergency, or any other pretense. Intelligence agencies that legitimately seek to preserve the security of the nation must be subject to oversight and transparency. We oppose the government's use of secret classifications to keep from the public information that it should have, especially that which shows that the government has violated the law. We oppose the use of torture and other cruel and unusual punishments, without exception.

Brungardt amendment PASS 6-3-3 at 9:22pm (see vote Tally Ballot 3)

The main motion now reads as follows

The defense of the country requires that we have adequate intelligence to detect and to counter threats to domestic security. This requirement must not take priority over maintaining the civil liberties of our citizens. The Constitution, including the Bill of Rights, shall not be suspended or curtailed, whether based on circumstances of war, epidemic, natural disaster or emergency, or any other pretense.
